TRIAL SMIRCHED WITH BRIBERY

McNamara's Investigator to Appear and Face Charge Today.

SEVERAL THOUSAND DOLLARS

Three Were Arrested and Will Appear to Answer Charges Today—$4,000 is Thought to be Involved. Many Bank Notes

Los Angeles, Nov. 28.—The ugly smirch of suspected bribery was trailed today across the trail of James B. McNamara for the alleged murder of Charles Haggerty, one of 21 victims of the Los Angeles Times disaster.

Tonight a pleased prosecution and a dumbfounded defense took stock of the day's work of Samuel L. Brown, chief investigator of the State, who arrested three men and stacked District Attorney Fredericks' desk high with bank notes taken from the arrested men's pockets in Frederick's presence.

Bert H. Franklin, a former deputy United States marshal, now employed by the McNamara defense as an investigator, released late today on $10,000 cash bail, is to appear in court tomorrow to answer charges of bribery and attempted bribery sworn to by Brown.

George H. Lockwood, a summoned venireman, and C. E. (Cap) White, an alleged stockholder, both arrested with Franklin, are at liberty, and, according to District Attorney Fredericks, they will appear as witnesses against Franklin.

Five hundred dollars, taken from Lockwood's pockets, is declared by the prosecution to have been the first payment of a sum which he would receive if he should prevent an adverse verdict in the McNamara case, and $3,500 found on White, declared to be the balance to be paid when the jury was discharged.

Rumors of a grand jury investigation to determine where the money came from, flew thick and fast throughout the day. No grand jury is in session, but one may be called.

This is not necessary so far as Franklin is concerned, because his case can be taken care of through an information filed by the District Attorney. Investigator Brown said that no more arrests would be made tonight.

There was nothing commonplace about the arrest of Franklin. It was no hotel room, or saloon scene, familiar to followers of exposes. A former deputy United States marshall acquainted with criminal methods and the methods devised to catch criminals through his former employment, was arrested on a street corner in the heart of Los Angeles' wholesale quarter in broad daylight, while a detective, disguised as a laborer, stood close enough to hear what was said.

Detective Brown, sheltered by a building, was close enough with his assistants to catch the three men before two of them could take their hands out of their pockets after, it is alleged, they had stuffed the money into them.

So, hands in pockets, the men were marched to the hall of records, where the McNamara trial is staged on the fourth floor. District Attorney Fredericks waited for them on the 11th floor. Hands in pockets, they entered the office. When the hands came out, Brown declares, the yellow bills clung to their fingers.

Twenty minutes later Lockwood, the venireman, and White, supposed stakeholder, went out of the swining doors free men, hardly enough time having elapsed to allow the dictation and signing of a statement, if this were done. Announcement that they would appear against Franklin as State witnesses followed them out.

Franklin, unperturbed, remarked that the State would find that it was mistaken, and had no case.

Questioned as to the legal status of Lockwood arose as soon as the report of the arrest gained circulation. He had not been reached by any venire subpoena. Unless some one other than an officer of the court told him he was on the venire he did not know. If he did not know he was a venireman he could not have been bribed, technically, to "hang" a jury or do anything else to it, the State concedes.

District Attorney Fredericks, however, asserted that Lockwood was legally connected with the jury from the moment his name was drawn from the jury wheel last Saturday.

TO RAISE LARGE FUND

Require Changes in Constitution of Veterans' Organization

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 28.—Because plans to raise a large fund wherewith to further the work must be preceded by certain changes in the constitution of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans, the executive council of that organization in session here today decided to postpone final decision as to an endowment fund until after the next general re-union of the associated bodies with the Confederate Veterans' Association at Macon, Ga., in May, 1912.

Reports made today from various sections of the country show the work of the organization to be in a thriving condition.

GRAND PRIZE RACE THURSDAY

...ions Are That It Will be Run ... Less Favorable Conditions Than Existed When Vanderbilt Cup.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 28.—Indications tonight are that the grand prize race will be run Thursday under less favorable conditions than existed when Ralph Mulford in record time won the Vanderbilt cup race yesterday.

Despite the unfavorable weather today, several of the world famous speed kings entered in Thursday's contest, tried out their racers today. Victor Hemery, the leader of the Benz trio, drove his 120 horse power demon in the fastest time of the day, negotiating the 17 miles in 16 minutes.

Much interest today was manifested in the application of Bob Harmon to enter the grand prize race in a Benz. His application which would have required unanimous vote to approve, was almost unanimously rejected, as three Benz cars are already entered.

It is said, however, Harmon will be among the contestants, as it is expected that he will drive the Marmon in the place of Joe Dawson, who was injured recently in an accident on the grand prize course.

The prospects are that on account of the weather conditions the record of 74.9 average miles an hour made by Ralph Mulford will not be broken Thursday, despite the fact that much more powerful cars are entered in the race.

It was learned tonight that Bob Burman and Jot Matson plan to make desperate efforts on the Santa Monica course to surpass Mulford's record of 74.9 for 202 miles made yesterday. Intense rivalry has been precipitated by Mulford's accomplishment and many famous drivers are planning to capture the laurels.

ONLY ECHO OF RIOTING.

Irish Play Produced in New York Last Night Without Trouble.

New York, Nov. 28.—There was only echo tonight of the rioting which accompanied the performance of the "Play Boy of the Western World" in its initial performance here last night. Shortly after the start, when the scene was reached that was considered the most objectionable by those who thought that it libelled the Irish race, a sybillant scream of hisses was again evoked. The burst of applause that came simultaneously, however, practically counterbalanced the opposing demonstration and thereafter throughout the evening the audience was more moved to applause than to expressions of disapprobation.

Seven men in all were ejected from the theatre during the evening.

The presence of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, who occupied a box with Lady Gregory, the patroness of the Irish players, was observed from all parts of the house and the Colonel was loudly applauded, both when he entered and when he left the theatre. He took dinner with Lady Gregory before the performance. The colonel would not discuss the play.

Late this afternoon a committee of well known Irishmen called on Mayor Gaynor and asked him to stop the production. The mayor said that he would delegate Chief Magistrate McAdoo to attend the performance and report to him. After the curtain had gone down tonight, Mr. McAdoo, asked as to the report he will make, said that as his only mission was to decide if the play were "immoral" his task was "an easy one."

DIES FROM POISON

Supposed to Have Intended Committing Suicide

Baltimore, Nov. 28.—Eugene A. Romeo, 35 years of age, of Jacksonville, Fla., died at a hospital here today from the effects of poison, taken, in the opinion of the coroner, with suicidal intent. Romeo was a passenger on the steamer Parthian which arrived today from Jacksonville. He was found in his stateroom in a stupor by the captain of the steamer who had noted his passenger's absence from meals.

A letter addressed to an aunt in this city gave color to the suicide theory. Romeo had been in ill health for the last year.

CONTROL OF NAVIGATION ONLY

Attorney Says Federal Government Has No Control of Water Power

Washington, Nov. 28.—Rome C. Brown, of Minneapolis, counsel for waterpower interests in Minnesota, Illinois and elsewhere, today told the Inland Waterways Commission that the power of the Federal government with respect to streams was confined solely to control over navigation. All other powers, he contended, had passed to the States, which in turn, in some cases, passed these powers to riparian owners. The Federal government, he said, had no control over waterpower rights in either navigable or non-navigable streams.

COTTON FARMERS MEET.

...To perfect Plans to Reduce Acreage is Suggested.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 28.—Governor C. B. Colquitt, of Texas, chairman of the recent cotton conference, which met in New Orleans to devise means for upholding the price of cotton, has suggested that cotton farmers throughout the South meet in county mass meeting December 16th, to perfect plans looking to the reduction of acreage in 1912. Governor Colquitt has asked the Governors of all cotton growing States to arrange for such meetings.

The Ceylon production of tea has decreased owing to the planting of rubber on tea lands.

FOUR MEN ARE SENTENCED TO DIE

Two Boys are Sentenced to Life Imprisonment at Chicago.

CONFESSED KILLING FARMER

Neither of the Boys are Under Eighteen— Held Up Farmer and Slew Him With Unmerciful Treatment

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Four men were found guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced to death, and two boys were sentenced to life imprisonment, by a jury tonight for the murder of a truck farmer on the outskirts of the city a month ago.

The four sentenced to death are Ewald and Frank Shiblawski, A. Philip Sommerling and Thomas Schultz. The two sentenced to life imprisonment were Frank Kita and Leo Suchomski, both 16 years old. None of the four on whom the jury visited the death penalty is of age. The youngest of them is 18 years old.

The boys robbed and killed Fred W. Gruelzow in spite of his supplication for life because he had a wife and baby to support. All confessed.

In his final plea for death penalties, Assistant State's Attorney Edward S. Day made an unique closing argument for the prosecution. It consisted solely of excerps from admissions made by the boys to the police and on the witness stand without commend.

The story he pieced together in effect was:

Gruelzow had nearly reached the city with a load of garden produce when the six boys set on him with two revolvers, two butcher knives, a club and a hammer. He alighted from his wagon and was struck down with the club. He pleaded for his life, on his knees, offering the boys all his possessions because he had a wife and a baby a month old at home, but the answer of the youths was to beat him into unconsciousness with the club and hammer.

After the man was unconscious he was stabbed four times with the butcher knives, the corpse was dragged into a nearby thicket, a club was jammed down his throat and several bullets were fired into the body.

The boys were arrested while trying to sell some of the booty.

Chicago, November 28.—Ewald Shiblawski is 24 years old; his brother is 21; Sommerling, a brother in law of Frank Shiblawski, is 34 years old and Schultz is 19 years old.

The jury was out only two hours, and only one ballot was taken in each case.

MRS. O'SHAUGHNESSY CLEARED.

Jury Finds She Was Insane at Time of Killing Husband.

New York, Nov. 28.—Mrs. Frances O'Shaughnessy, who madly reasoned that to save her unfaithful husband's soul she had to kill him, was cleared by a jury this afternoon of all blame in slaying him. They found after two hours' deliberation that she was insane at the time of the shooting. Mrs. O'Shaughnessy was led back to her cell after the verdict was returned in accordance with the custom prevailing in insanity cases. Tomorrow she will be brought into the court again to face two experts who already have testified to her present sanity. Her counsel and the district attorney will ask the alienists if she is now insane and according to their replies the court will give her liberty or order her incarceration in an asylum.

The woman faced trial with the full expectation of going to the electric chair. When she heard the verdict she fell insensible in the arms of a court attendant, and although she recovered consciousness almost immediately she failed to recognize those about her for several minutes.

JOKE CAUSED DEATH?

Thought That Lady Drank Poison Through Practical Joke.

New York, Nov. 28.—Preliminary investigation of the death of Mrs. Tristam Shanks, the singer, who died early Sunday morning, from the effects of carbolic acid taken in the golf club house in Van Cortlandt Park, was negative today, so far as concerned the coroner's theory that death resulted "from a crude practical joke." Half a dozen men who saw the woman stagger and fall testified, but none had seen the poison before she drank it, and most of them said they knew nothing of the existence of a glass bottle labelled "vermouth," which the coroner believes contained the poison and was placed in a spirit of fun beside her plate.

Mrs. Shanks claimed to be a daughter of the ecclesiastical canon of Trinity Church, Dublin.

KILLS NORTH CAROLINIAN.

Grand Jury Indicts Tennessee Man on Charge of Murder.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 28.—E. L. Nonemacher was indicted today by the Shelby county grand jury on the charge of first degree murder. Nonemacher fatally shot J. F. Martin, of Reidsville, N. C., in a Memphis Hotel Saturday. The "unwritten law" will be his plea. Today's action by the grand jury will preclude Nonemacher's liberation on bail, granted yesterday by the city police court.

IMPROVEMENT OF WATERWAYS

Rivers and Harbors Congress to Be in Session at Washington Next Month—Congressman Ransdell Talks of Movement

New Orleans, Nov. 28.—Congressman J. E. Ransdell, president of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, will leave for Washington tomorrow to assist in the preparations for the eighth annual convention to be held in that city December 6-8.

"It is of the greatest imporance for the success of the National Waterway Movement," he said today, "that a large and enthusiastic convention be held in Washington next month. We have the greatest cause for encouragment from the rapid progress made since our organization began active work six years ago. At that time less than $20,000,000 per annum was being expended for all the great water courses of this republic while now the annual appropriations exceed $30,000,000. If the present Congress continues for the next two years the same wise policy adopted by its predecessors, the success of our waterway movement will be well established.

"But we must not be too sanguine yet awhile. The Democratic party, in power in the House of Representatives for the first time in sixteen years, is committed to a policy of economy, retrenchment and reform in public expenditures. I am in hearty accord and sympatny with these views but would deem it most unwise for my party to turn backward as far as the improvement of our waterways is concerned.

"While we have every cause for congratulation on past results and the goal of our hopes is almost within sight, we have not yet won the battle and must continue our efforts with vigor and determination."

SPECIAL SESSION COURT

Ordered to Complete Trial in Patterson Case

Denver, Col., Nov. 28.—In order that the jury may retire tonight to consider a verdict in the case of Gertrude Gibson Patterson, charged with the murder of her husband, Judge Allen ordered a special session of the court. All afternoon till dusk in the dingy little court room, a relic of Denver's early days, the defendant sat nearly all the time in one posture, her elbow on a table and her cheek resting on her hand, concealing her countenance from the spectators. Her fingers stretched across her eyes shutting out the sight of Prosecutor Benson as he painted the killing of Patterson as the deliberate climax of a completely selfish life.

Attorney Benson closed an impassioned arraignment of the defendant by exhibiting the coat worn by Patterson when he was shot. He pointed to the powder-marked hole in the back and gave it to the jurors for closer examination.

Attorney Hilton, for the defense, painted his client as the unfortunate victim of two men.

He asserted that any of the assaults which Patterson, as told by witnesses, made on his wife, would have justified her in killing him.

At the night session Attorney Hilton finished argument for the defense. An hour was consumed in reply by the prosecutor and the case was given to the jury at 9:40 o'clock.

Shortly after 10 o'clock Judge Allen ordered the jury locked up for the night. He told the jurors he would not be in court before 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, so a verdict cannot be returned before that hour.

Muskogee, Okla., Nov. 28.—C. A. Nichols, president of the Guaranty State Bank, United States Commissioner at Muskogee, and wealthy property owner in Muskogee and Asheville, N. C., dropped dead on the street here today of heart failure.

OUTLINES.

The Senate Committee on Inter-State Commerce received a sensation yesterday when Wharton Barker, a retired banker, said that Roosevelt's election in 1904 was due to the aid of the financial interests. Barker said a New York financier told him Roosevelt had "made a bargain" on the railroad question. He also stated that the ex-President knew the details of the panic of 1907 prior to the time the depression came——Hang Yang has been occupied by Imperial forces in China, Wu Chang has made a provisional capitulation and the government is getting a strong hand, but the rebellion is in no wise ended——Congressman J. E. Ransdell, president of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress which will be in session in Washington next month, in speaking of it, said that the congress will be of great importance for the success of the waterways movement before the coming session of Congress ——Representative Littleton, of New York, has requested the chairman of the House Committee of Inquiry into the Steel Trust to call an investigation of assaults made on his integrity. Chairman Stanley refused to call an investigation upon the grounds that he has no authority to do so——Four boys have been sentenced to die and two to life imprisonment at Chicago for the murder of a farmer. None of the boys is over eighteen years of age.

IMPERIALISTS WIN OVER THE REBELS

Hang Yang Occupied While Wu Chang Has Provisionally Capitulated.

NO NEWS OF LI YUEN HENG

Government Position Strengthened in China, But Rebellion is in No Wise Ended—Foreign Settlements Suffer.

Peking, Nov. 28.—Hang Yang has been occupied by the Imperial forces, which crossed the Han river, 20 miles above that place. Wu Chang has made a provisional capitulation and it is evident that the government is getting a strong hand in that part of Hu-Peh province where a few weeks ago the rebels seemed to have supreme control.

There is no news of Li Yuen-Heng, the revolutionary commander, and it is not known whether he led the defense of Hang Yeng or directed it from Wu Chang. It is not believed that the rebels will surrender, as they fear slaughter, but will prefer to take chances in flight in the open country. The rebels yesterday endeavored to obtain the terms offered by Yuan Shi Kai three weeks ago, but it is reliably reported that Lieut. Gen. Chang Kao Chang, commander of the Imperial troops at Hangkow, has refused.

The foreign settlements suffered heavily. A Hankow consular report says it was a foregone conclusion that the Imperialists would win if they attacked seriously, because of their superior organization. During the attack every position the rebels assumed was heavily shelled. The Imperialists numbered probably 30,000 modern drilled men. The rebels were for the most part volunteers, perhaps equal in number to the Imperial forces.

Two days ago Premier Yuan Shi Kai's position seemed hopeless. He was deserted by former followers upon whose help he counted. Both Chinese and foreign residents in Peking believed the dynasty was on the verge of abdication. Friends urged the premier to capitulate; others fearing his assassination, endeavored to persuade him to take refuge in the foreign concessions at Tien Tsin.

Today Yuan Shi Kai is still a one-man government, combining in himself both executive and legislative powers but it is now expected that the men recently appointed to the cabinet will come to Peking promptly. A certain awe surrounds Yuan Shi Kai. The National Assembly feared him and did not dare to insist upon his presence before it. The members preferred to leave the capital. Then the army rallied unexpectedly. The premier removed suspected officers, encouraged others and rewarded the soldiers with gifts of money in spite of the treasury's plight. He even audaciously sent Manchu troops away from the capital to the front, and he is now sending reinforcements to Pukow, opposite Nanking, as well as to Hankow and Shan-Si.

If the Premier were able to obtain a foreign loan he would control the situation. The opinion, however, is held that the revolution is by no means ended. The legations believe the dynasty is saved, unless the Rebels succeed in fulfilling their threat to kill Yuan Shi Kai with dynamite. The Premier recently informed Sir John Jordan, the British Minister, that he did not fear assassination. His carriage today passed through the streets of Peking guarded by twenty-five cavalrymen.

Rebels Had Not Taken Nanking

Shanghai, Wireless from Nanking, Nov. 29. (12:45 A. M.)—Up to midnight the Rebels had not taken Nanking. Desultory firing by heavy guns continued throughout the night but the gunboats did not take part. Evidently they are preparing for action.

Attempt to Rescue Foreigners

London, Nov. 28.—A dispatch from Tien Tsin says that a relief party of Englishmen, under Captain Sowerby, a member of the League of Frontiersmen, has started for Sian Fu, Shen Si Province, in an attempt to rescue any foreigners who may remain in that city. Recent dispatches reported the killing of many foreigners there and the flight of others, but no direct word has come out of Sian Fu for a long time.

DAMAGING EVIDENCE PRODUCED

Against Young Man Charged With Murdering Thomasville Man

Thomasville, N. C., Nov. 28.—Damaging evidence was produced against Robert Leonard before Coroner Peacock today, and tonight he is being closely guarded in Davidson jail charged with the murder of Charles L. Everhart, whose badly decomposed body was found near here by hunters yesterday. Testimony presented before the coroner was to the effect that Leonard went to a shooting match and that he had blood stains on his face and handkerchief; that he had a roll of greenbacks, one bill of which had been identified as a keepsake of Everhart's and that when arrested he declared he had no money, though when searched $64 was taken from his shoe. Leonard refuses to make any statement. Everhart is known to have had more than $100 with him Saturday morning and the police are working on the theory that he was murdered solely for robbery.

WANTED AN INVESTIGATION

Congressman Littleton Requested that Committee Investigate Assaults on His Integrity—Chairman Stanley Refused Them

Washington, Nov. 28.—Representative A. O. Stanley, chairman of the House Committee of Inquiry into the United States Steel Corporation, refused today the request of his colleague, Martin W. Littleton, of New York, that he call the committee together to investigate assaults upon his integrity and standing as a member of the committee.

Mr. Stanley, after receiving formal request from Mr. Littleton to subpoena John A. Hennessy, the editor of the New York Press; Henry B. Martin, secretary of the Anti-trust League; David Lamar, a New York broker, and others whom he declared had part in circulating an attack upon him, replied to the New York Congressman, stating that he had no jurisdiction in the matter and that Mr Littleton's only recourse was on the floor of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Stanley's reply was, in fact, an open declaration of war upon Mr. Littleton, who said he would first appeal to individual members of the committee to request the issuance of the subpoenas. If this fails he will take his fight to the floor of the House and he counts upon the support of many Democrats.

"I have no authority expressed or implied under the resolution authorizing the investigation of the affairs of the United States Steel Corporation," said Chairman Stanley in his letter to Mr. Littleton, "to either summon witnesses or try the issue presented."

TRIAL RESUMED.

Millionaire Put Under Renewed Cross Examination.

New York, Nov. 28.—W. E. D. Stokes, the millionaire horse man, was put under renewed cross examination today when, after an intermission due to the necessity of picking a new juror to fill the place of the one dismissed for talking indiscreetly about the case, the trial of Ethel Conrad and Lilliam Graham, the show girls charged with attempting Stokes' life by shooting was resumed. The testimony previously taken was read for the benefit of the new juror.

Robert M. Moore, the girl's attorney, questioned Mr. Stokes concerning letters he had written to Miss Graham, his purpose being to show that instead of the girl "chasing him," as Stokes had alleged, he was really in love with her.

"The most crushing part of your letter was when you asked me to give your love to Clarence," the attorney quoted from one of Stokes' letters, written in Chicago in 1906.

"That was a joke," explained the witness. "Clarence was an old man about 67 or eight."

"You joked with her throughout the whole of that first year when you were trying to get her to visit you at Lexington?"

Stokes was silent. Other letters told of Stokes offering Miss Graham and her sister, Mrs. Singleton, the use of his automobile, of sending her candy, of getting her a theatrical engagement, of giving her money and of being "eager for her welfare."

"Don't touch beer, wine or liquor," he wrote, "it will ruin your complexion."

KILLS FIVE.

Italian Then Shoots Himself to Death.

New York, Nov. 28.—Ignappia Plospia, an Italian storekeeper, killed his wife, his mother, his sister, and his two children, then shot himself to death in the rooms back of his store at Lodi, N. J., a small town near Hackensack, this afternoon.

Plospia had quarreled with his family and had been away for a week. He returned this afternoon and went into the store. A customer who entered soon after found the six corpses. The man used a revolver and each cartridge counted for a life.

Plospia's corpse lay nearest the door. Between him and the living room at the back lay the body of his wife. In the next room were the other two women and in the bed room the two children, aged four and six.

QUICK DISPOSAL OF CASE

Jury Reached Verdict of Guilty in Ten Minutes

White Plains, N. Y., Nov. 28.—It took a jury but ten minutes to reach a verdict of guilty today in the trial of Vincenzo Corna, charged with the murder of Mrs. Mary Hall at her home near Crotan Lake on Nevemuer 9th, last. Never was a murder case cleared up in shorter time in this country.

Two days after the murder, five men alleged to have been bandits who killed Mrs. Hall in an effort to make her disclose the whereabouts of a large sum of insurance money, were arrested; they were indicted two days later; Corna, the alleged leader of the bandits, was placed on trial yesterday. The defense presented no witnesses. Two more of the alleged bandits will be placed on trial tomorrow.

FIRE AND GALE

Three Towns Visited by Destructive Blazes Yesterday—Losses

Jamestown, Kas., Nov. 28.—Fire today destroyed most of the business section of this town, causing a loss estimated at $300,000. Forty of the 44 stores were burned. A lack of fire-fighting facilities and the blizzard that prevailed handicapped the volunteer firemen.

SPRUNG SENSATION BEFORE COMMITTEE

Financiers Supported Roosevelt Because He "Made a Bargain".

ON THE RAILROAD QUESTION

Retired Philadelphia Bankers Gave Out an Interesting Statement—Says Roosevelt Knew of Impending Panic.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Wharton Barker, a retired banker of Philadelphia, sprung a sensation on the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce when he alleged that a New York financier told him in 1904 that the financial interests would support Theodore Roosevelt for President because the latter had "made a bargain" with them "on the railroad question."

Mr. Barker's statement came in the midst of a vigorous attack on the "money trust" in which he alleged also that President Roosevelt had been given the details of the impending panic of 1907 several months before it happened, but took no action to prevent it. He declared that the Aldrich currency plan was the handiwork, not of former Senator Aldrich, but of a Mr. Warburg, of the banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Company, of New York, and that a fund of $1,000,000 had been started to insure its adoption.

"Three or four weeks before the election of 1904," said Mr. Barker, "I was walking down Broadway when I met one of the most distinguished money kings in New York, a man now dead. He said to me: 'We are going to elect Roosevelt.' I expressed surprise and asked if he had given up the support of Parker. He said yes; that they had frightened Roosevelt so he had made a bargain with them."

Mr. Barker said the financial giant, whom he declined to name, told him that Roosevelt had "made a bargain on the railroad question."

Mr. Barker continued: "He is to 'holler all he wants to,' he told me, 'but by and by a railroad bill will be brought in by recommendation of the President, cutting off rebates and free passes, which suits us, who own the railroads, permitting the railroads to make pooling arrangements and providing for maximum rates'."

The railroad man added, said Mr. Barker, that under the latter authority it would be possible to add from $300,000,000 to $400,000,000 to the total freight charges paid by the American public.

"I told him I didn't believe Roosevelt had made any such agreement," said Mr. Barker, "but when the annual message of 1905 went to Congress he recommended most of those things. I wrote to President Roosevelt and told him what I heard and that I had thought the man lied, but now I must believe he had not. It was the only letter of mine Mr. Roosevelt ever failed to answer."

Members of the committee asked Mr. Barker to give the name of the financial man who had told him that Roosevelt was to be elected.

"I cannot do it," said Mr. Barker, "but subsequently somebody was alleged to have stolen some correspondence between Mr. Harriman and the President, telling of $250,000 put up for election expenses in the city of New York."

Referring to the panic of 1907, Mr. Barker said a man who was present at a conference at J. P. Morgan's house in May, came to him in Philadelphia and wanted him to use his influence with President Roosevelt to stop a plan that had been mapped out, he alleged, by the financial leaders. The man was a captain in the Rough Riders, he said, and had used his own influence with the President, but without avail.

"The plan," said Mr. Barker, "contemplated the curtailment of loans, the withdrawal of credits, the putting away of money by those interested where they could get it when they needed it to stop the panic, and the enforcement of the various State laws regarding the holding of cash reserves by the banks and trust companies."

Mr. Barker said that in October, when the financial upheaval reached its crisis, he urged President Roosevelt to distribute the $145,000,000 of cash on hand in the treasury among the banks of Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and other large cities.

"He wanted to do it," he said, "but he called in Mr. Knox and Mr. Cortelyou and Mr. Root and instead of depositing in the outside cities, he plunged the whole amount into Wall street. It broke the country, but it saved the gamblers."

Mr. Barker, whose banking house at one time was fiscal agent for the Russian government, declared that the "great money oligarchy" of New York controlled all lines of finance, industry and transportation and that no legislation designed to break up the trusts would strike at the root of the trouble.

"Few people appreciate," he said, "how, by control of the money of trust companies, savings banks and National and State banks this money trust has throttled individual enterprise".

Mr. Barker urged a central bank of the United States to be controlled by directors chosen from arbitrary districts covering the whole country.

"That would take the people out of the clutches of Wall Street and put them in possession of their own rights," he said. William L. Royall, of Richmond, also appeared before the committee and declared the decree to dissolve the American Tobacco Company "was a roaring farce." He also asserted that the Sherman anti-trust law, if strictly interpreted, was unconstitutional and needed amendment.

Roosevelt Reads Statement.

New York, Nov. 28.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt, while attending tonight the performance by the Irish players of "The Play Boy of the Western World," was shown the synopsis of Wharton Barker's testimony in Washington today before the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce in which Col. Roosevelt's name figured prominently. He read the statement carefully and then declared: "I would as soon discuss a pipe dream with a patient of bedlam as discuss such nonsense."

Col. Roosevelt would not add to this statement, only repeating it later with added emphasis, if anything, when pressed by other questioners for an additional expression.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Will Contain 5,000 to 6,000 Words—Devoted to One Subject

Washington, Nov. 28.—President Taft's third annual message, which goes to Congress Tuesday, will be devoted to the "trust question." The message contains from 5,000 to 6,000 words and with the exception of a few references in a general way to other related subjects, will deal with the question of industrial combinations alone. Although details of the message were not made public, it was understood tonight that Federal incorporation, as outlined by Mr. Taft two years ago, will be suggested again as a method for solution of the problem.

The President has indicated his aversion to amendment of the Sherman Anti-trust Act, and from his talks with callers tonight the inference was drawn that there is no suggestion of such amendment in the message.

"I've put all of my eggs in one basket," the President said to caller tonight.

In sending an annual message to Congress devoted to one subject alone, the President has done something that has not been done since 1887 when President Cleveland devoted his message entirely to the tariff. It is usual for the chief executive to point the need of all sorts of legislation and to give in brief form the history of the past year so far as the government is concerned. This will be done away with in the present message and later on Mr. Taft will send special messages to Congress dealing with important subjects.

The President expects to discuss the tariff in separate messages to be written after December. The tariff board, it was said tonight, will not be able to make its report on the wool and cotton schedules until then and the message will not be undertaken until that report is ready.

REINSTATED IN FEDERATION

Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners Again Member Labor Union

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 28.—In accordance with the resolution adopted by the American Federation of Labor, the Building Trades Department, now in annual session, today reinstated the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, which was suspended about a year ago. There was no representative of he carpenters present to speak for that organization, but the opinion prevails in labor circles that the union will go back into the deparment.

The department also concurred in the action of the Federation declaring for an amalagamtion of the steam fitters and plumbers unions and representatives of these bodies were instructed to confer with the executive committee of the Federation as to the method of amalgamatioh.

The application of the Boiler Makers Union for membership in the department was received today. The boiler makers have a membership of twenty thousand.

It was announced by Secretary of the Federation today that organization work in the South will be pushed to the utmost during the coming year, in the hope of increasing the membership in the Federation to two million before the Rochester convention.

TAKE AUTO SCHOOL

Prisoner at Atlanta Said By Score of Pupils to Have Swindled

Atlanta, Nov. 28.—Charged with using the mails to defraud, a man, giving his name as A. G. Tee, is under arrest here and witnesses against him are more than twenty young men from the rural district of several Southern States who allege that through circulars sent out by Tee they were induced to come here to take a course at an "automobile school" which they claim was not up to specifications.

Tee, it is alleged, collected fees of $25 from each of the youths who aspired to be expert chauffeurs but, according to his students, his instructions consisted almost entirely in carrying them in an automobile for short rides and allowing one of their number to sit at the wheel for a mile, this constituting the sum total of "road instructions."

Tee will have a hearing before a United States commissioner on Friday. He was arrested by a postoffice inspector after the "scholars" had reported the alleged fraud to the postmaster.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.

Rev. E. B. Carr to Preach at Old Point Caswell Church.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Atkinson, N. C., Nov. 28.—One of the best tests of a nation or a people's greatness is found in the spirit of Thanksgiving. A truly thankful people is a truly great people. Come out to Old Point Caswell Presbyterian church on next Thanksgiving, Nov. 30, 1911, at 11 o'clock A. M. I just have a desire to see every member of Old Point Caswell Church present at this service. Not only our own members, but we would be exceedingly glad to see all other people of whatever name or denomination engage in this service. The Lord has been good to us all, "truly God has been good to Israel." And now let us lay aside our work on that day and let our hearts and spirits go out to God in gratitude. A sermon will be preached, then we will call on all others who will to speak a word or two on the subject.

May God's Spirit put it into the hearts of our good Currie people, as well as our good Atkinson, and Point Caswell people, to attend these services. Brethren, don't let anything hinder you from attending these services.

Yours very sincerely,

E. B. CARR.

ADDITIONAL DETAILS

Secured by Investigators of the Chicago Police.

Chicago, November 28.—Investigators today told the City Civil Service Commission, which is examining into the relations of the Chicago police force with vice, additional details of the payment of "protection" money by denizens of the underworld to those who pretended to represent the police and to be able to give absolution from police interference in return for the money. An affidavit from a resident of the restricted quarter was read, relating her experiences in being forced to pay money to man posing as the "boss of the underworld."

The commission's detectives testified that vice conditions had improved all through the city because of the activity of the commission, but that it was the understanding in the restricted quarters that the abatement of undesirable conditions was only temporary until the vigilance of the committee should relax.

PETITION OF BANKRUPTCY.

Cotton Manufacturers Have Liabilities Greater than Assets.

Greensboro, November 28.—A petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed here today against the German-American Company, cotton manufacturers, of Draper, N. C., and against whom a suit in equity for the foreclosure of a $400,000 deed of trust in favor of the New York Trust Company is now pending. Judge Boyd gave the defendant company until December 6th to show cause why it should not be adjudged bankrupt. The company has liabilities of about $1,000,000, while its assets will little more than satisfy the claim of the New York Trust Company. It is said the bankruptcy proceedings will not interfere with the sale of the property on December 7th, as ordered by the court in equity.

FOUR BURNED TO DEATH

Farmer and Three Children in Burning House

New Wester, B. C., Nov. 28.—Fire on the farm of Lieutenant Governor W. T. Paterson near Liverpool station, caused the death of four persons early today. Thomas Moore, in charge of the farm, his young daughter and two small sons were the victims. Five children, boys, escaped. The mother and a sister were absent from the home.

An overturned lamp is, supposed to have caused the fire. One of the boys who escaped was severely burned trying to re-enter the house to arouse the father.

Glasco, Kan., Nov. 28.—Driven before a high wind from the northwest, fire swept this city today, causing damage estimated at $200,000. The entire business quarter was destroyed. Lack of water facilities left the town powerless to fight the flames.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Alex Crohn, alias John Wesley, colored, was arrested by Officer J. F. Smith, at Nutt and Walnut streets yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock on a warrant charging him with committing a murder in Robeson county. The negro was taken to the City Hall, where he denied any knowledge of the crime, stating that he came from South Carolina.

The police recently received a notice from Lumberton officers asking them to look out for and arrest John Wesley, colored, who was wanted in that county for committing a murder. The circular gave a description of the man but did not go into details as to whom he had killed or when the crime was committed. The officers were instructed to look out for the man and when Patrolman Smith saw Crohn or Wesley working at the Champion Compress he recognized him as filling the description exactly.

The man is a tall, dark ginger-cake colored negro, about six feet in height and weighing probably 180 pounds. Two of his upper front teeth are crowned with gold, an item that was mentioned in the description sent.

Lumberton officials have been notified and it is expected that they will send an officer to identify the negro.

The chief of police of Lumberton came down on the late train last night and after looking at the man declared that he is not the one wanted. He stated, however, that there was a decided resemblance between the two men and that on first inspection, Crohn looked almost exactly like Wesley.

BOLDER THAN EVER

Negro Attempted to Enter Bed Room in Open Daylight

At the residence of Miss Katie King, No. 117 North Eleventh street, one of the boldest of the many robberies or attempts at robberies occurred yesterday morning in open daylight, a few minutes before 8 o'clock. A negro attempted to enter the bed room through the window and was discovered when his body was almost half way in the opening, when several shots from a pistol were fired at him, none of which, however, is believed to have taken effect, as the man made his escape.

Miss King was awakened by the noise and discovered the negro entering the room. She had a pistol in easy reach and waiting until the man's body was almost in the room she fired at him. The bullet struck and embedded itself in the window sill within a few inches of the man's head and he quickly dropped to the ground and darted out of the yard. As he fled another shot was fired at him, but he did not stop and it is hardly thought that either of the bullets hit him.

The police were notified of the incident immediately after it happened and they made an investigation, but found no clue to the identity of the bold intruder.

STILL BEING REPORTED

Police Learn of More Burglaries or Attempted Burglaries

Among the many other petty burglaries that have been reported to the police recently are two, a successful one at the home of Mr. Thompson, northwest corner of Third and Market street, several nights ago and an unsuccessful attempt to enter the home of Mr. R. R. Bellamy, No. 509 Market street, which was made last Saturday night. At Mr. Thompson's home a pair of trousers belonging to a young man who boarded there were rifled and the sum of about $10 in money was taken from the pockets. A grip was also carried to the back porch along with the trousers and searched, but no money was found.

At Mr. Bellamy's home the intruder climbed up the front porch and was walking along the roof when seen by Mr. Bellamy. While the latter had gone to the back of the house to get his gun the robber took the hint and disappeared.

The police seem powerless to stay the outbreak of burglaries.

PROCESS OF ANALYZING TEA.

Which Will Detect Quantity of Coloring Matter.

Washington, Nov. 28.—The Treasury Department and Eastern Tea Importers are still at loggerheads over the proper method of testing tea importations for coloring matter. There is a possibility that the much mooted question ultimately will land in the United States Court of Customs Appeals.

The importers here submitted a process of analyzing tea which they claim will detect the minutest quantity of coloring matter, while the chemical tests adopted by the government, it is contended, permits slightly colored tea to enter. Government chemists are experimenting with the importers' process.

Elbing, Kan., Nov. 28.—Only the aid of the passengers and crew of a Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific train saved this town from destruction by fire today. The train was held 15 minutes while those aboard joined the local volunteer bucket brigade. The flames were stopped after they had consumed six business buildings.

Government Attorney Says the Goobers Are No Good

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Two hundred and twenty-three sacks of peanuts from Virginia, destined for the Christmas stockings of boys and girls of the Middle West, are being held here by agents of the United States Department of Justice because United States District Attorney Wilkerson does not want owners of the Christmas stockings disappointed in the quanty of their holiday refreshments.

In a libel petition to the Federal Court the District Attorney declares that the peanuts are wormy, filled with refuse and dirt and are otherwise unfit to be exposed for sale as a basis for holiday cheer.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Bibliography of North Carolina Literature Presented—Activities of Year Reviewed by R. D. W. Connor—Senator Lodge.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 28.—The presentation of the Bibliography of North Carolina literature, or rather books written by North Carolinians, whether now in or out of the State, and a review of the historical activities in the State, the former by Dr. D. H. Hill, and the latter by R. D. W. Connor, were the principal features of the afternoon session of the North Carolina Literary and Historical Association in annual session here.

Some of the principal books noted by Dr. Hill in his bibliography for the year were Dr. Archibald Henderson's "Life and Works of Bernard Shaw," that won the Patterson cup last night, and his "Interpreters of Life," and his "Mark Twain, a Biography"; Jno. T. Bassett's "Life of Andrew Jackson"; E. A. Alderman's "Life of J. L. M. Currie."

"The Historical Activities of the Year," by R. D. W. Connor, was a most illuminating paper that covered the scope of this work in this State for 1911 admirably the following being the principal features:

Memorial tablets: by the Colonial Dames, to mark the site of Fort Johnson—1746 to 1775, on the Cape Fear river below Wilmington.

By the Mecklenburg Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, to mark the spot where Lieut. Geo. Locke, of Mecklenburg, lost his life in battle with Col. Tarleton, September 26th, 1781.

By the Elizabeth Maxwell Steele Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, Salisbury, in honor of Mrs. Elizabeth Maxwell Steele, a noted patriot of the Revolution.

By the Joseph Montfort Memorial Association at Halifax, in honor of Joseph Montfort, colonel and Revolutionary patriot and provincial Grand Master of Masons, of and for America, the highesst Masonic official ever on this continent, as the tablet declares, 1771-1776.

By the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina in Center Church, near Statesville, to commemorate the organization of the first Synod of the Carolinas, November 5, 1788.

By the Bloomsbury Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, at Raleigh, to mark the site of the old town of Bloomsbury, first county seat of Wake county, 1771-1792.

By the Twentieth Century Club, Mt. Olive, in the auditorium of the Mt. Olive High School, in memory of Mrs. Emma H. Southerland, for many years a teacher in the school.

Monuments and statues erected or contracts awarded for erection during the year:

By Moores Creek Battle Ground Company, on the old battlefield to mark the old Colonial stage road followed by the Highland army on its march in February, 1775 from Cross Creek to their defeat on Moore's Creek bridge, February 27, 1776.

The Guilford Battleground Company, secured an appropriation by Congress of $25,000 for statue of Gen. Nathaniel Greene to be erected on the battleground.

By the United Daughters of the Confederacy, a monument at Asheboro, to the soldiers of Randolph county.

By D. H. Hill Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy, Elizabeth City, to soldiers of Pasquotank county.

Acts were passed by the Legislature of 1911, authorizing 13 counties and towns to appropriate funds amounting to more than $10,000 to aid in the erection of Confederate monuments.

By the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Wilmington, an heroic bronze statue of Hon. Geo. Davis, Confederate States Senator 1862-64, and attorney general of the Confederacy 1864.

Contract was placed for the erection of a heroic bronze statue of Chas. D. McIver, to be delivered in December, 1911.

Busts provided through North Carolina Historical Commission: Matt W. Ransom, United States Senator. Samuel Johnson, first United States Senator 1789. Jno. M. Morehead, Governor, 1840-44. Calvin H. Wiley, first superintendent public instruction, 1853-55.

More than 10,000 valuable manuscripts secured by the Historical Commission.

Mr. Connor reviewed the historical work of the societies at University of North Carolina, Trinity College, Wachovia Historical Society, and called attention to the organization of several new historical societies and to the passage of an act for the State fire-proof administration building in which will be provided quarters for the State Historical Commission.

"Makers of our Constitution" was the theme of an address by United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, before the North Carolina Historical Association tonight.

He reviewed the personality of the dominant makers of the Federal Constitution and features of the world's history that contributed to its formulation and most sharply criticised clamors of late being raised for changes or reconstruction. The most diabolical of all changes being proposed, he declared, to the proposition for "compulsory" initiative and referendum. In an exhaustive view of this proposed governmental change, he argued that it would be subsituting a government of tumult for a government of law, and that it is travesty on popular government and the antipathy of Democracy.

He appealed for support of representative government through Congress and State Legislatures and for the enactment of laws to meet current governmental needs.

R. D. W. Connor was elected president of the association. Other officers chosen were Dr. W. P. Few, of Trinity College, and Miss Lida T. Rodman, of Washington, vice president, and Clarence Poe, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Poe has been secretary and treasurer since the association was formed twelve years ago.

Resolutions were adopted endorsing the movement to mark the Daniel Boone trail from Yadkin county westward through Tennessee into Kentucky and the undertaking of the North Carolina division of Daughters of the Confederacy to erect a $250,000 monument to North Carolina soldiers at Gettysburg.

For the brilliant address tonight by United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, the introduction of the distinguished speaker was by ex-Judge R. W. Winston, who expressed the pleasure of Raleigh and North Carolina in having "The brains o' the dorminant Republican party to visit the State and capital city and to see the people for himself."

A brilliant finale for the session of the association was the reception by ex-Judge and Mrs. R. W. Winston tonight.

The entire second floor of the Yarborough Hotel was given over to the affair, the magnificence of which was on a scale never surpassed in this city. There were over three hundred guests.

GREENSBORO AFFAIRS

Daring Burglary—Death at Liberty—Auto Parade—Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 28.—A daring burglary was committed in Greensboro just before dawn yesterday morning when the residence of Mrs. I. F. West, on West Sycamore street, in a thickly settled residential section, was entered and $150 in cash taken. The burglar entered through a window and into a room that Mrs. West had just left. Mrs. West returned to the room in two or three minutes and was startled to find the burglar in her house and preparing to leave with her purse containing the goodly sum of money. Mrs. West was too frightened to even make sure whether the man was white or black. Mrs. West conducts a millinery establishment on East Washington street and keeping the store open late Saturday she was unable to put her money and receipts in the bank, thus taking her belongings to her home. Mrs. West says that when she saw the burglar she screamed and that the man made a dash for the open window and in his mad rush fell over a rocking chair, the fall, however, sent him nearer the open window and he was up and through the window in a moment. The lady's screams brought other occupants of the house to the scene and the police were notified. The police have a theory that they are working on and hope to soon have the bold robber in the toils of the law.

News was received here last night of the death at Liberty of J. B. West, Sr., one of the best known and most generally loved men of Guilford county He was 86 years of age and death was the result of infirmities of old age. Mr. West had been a member of the Methodist church for 73 years, was a prominent Mason and a very large and influential farmer and citizen of his section. The funeral service was held from the Metnodist church at Liberty this afternoon, the interment being with Masonic honors.

Division superintendents of the northern district of the Southern Railway were in conference here yesterday with General Superintendent Hutchens, the object being solely to exchange ideas and discuss plans for the general betterment of the service.

There is much concern and alarm here in the critical change in the condition of Levi M. Scott, who has been unconscious since Saturday as the result of a fall, either from his bed or while getting up. He was found by a member of his family and it is feared has suffered a fractured hip. Mr. Scott is one of the oldest men in Guilford county and is the "father" of the Guilford bar, having been practicing law here for more than 55 years. He has held many public offices and has always been prominent in matters that had the interest of the whole people at heart.

The new auto-police patrol was formally turned over to the city this afternon by its builder and it is said to be the first motor propelled vehicle for transporting prisoners in the State. The patrol, with the exception of the Chassis, was built here and cost the city $1,500. It has a regular prison cage for six, with seat for policeman and driver and its owner declares that it will go anywhere that a regular automobile will. It is a very handsome affair and in very great contrast to the bunglesome old horse wagon formally in use.

HORRIBLE DEATH AT GIN

Young Man Wound Around Shaft, Legs Drawn from Body

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., Nov. 28.—News was received here tonight of a horrible accident which occurred at J. B. Lee & Son's cotton gin, at Arapahoe, this afternoon and in which one young man lost his life, and another who tried to save him was badly injured. In some way Mr. James Bennett, the 20-year-old son of Mr. Ed. Bennett, of that place, who was employed at the cotton gin, became entangled in the shafting of the gin and was whirled around for a number of times. The engine was brought to a standstill as soon as possible, and the mangled remains of the unfortunate young man taken from the shafting. One leg was completely torn from his body, and the other one was barely hanging.

The young man lived for about three quarters of an hour after the accident.

Mr. John Rawls, another employe at the gin, attempted to rescue Mr. Bennett and was so badly injured that he required the attention of a physician.

WILSON DEPOT HEARING

(Special Star Telegram.)

Wilson, N. C., Nov. 28.—Mr. W. T. Lee, of the State Corporation Commission, today presided over the union depot hearing here, C. C. Daniels represented the citizens and Col. W. B. Rodman, general solicitor; W. R. Hudson, general superintendent; B. L. Bugg, traffic manager, of the Norfolk-Southern, and W. H. Newell, general superintendent; C. L. GOOD ROADS TRAIN

Interesting and Profitable Meeting at Rocky Mount Yesterday

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Nov. 28.—In spite of high winds and pouring rains all through the early morning, when the gentlemen in charge of the Atlantic Coast Line Good Roads Special called their meeting in the Gem Theatre there were 200 or 300 citizens present, the majority of them being residents of the city, the country people being unable to attend on account of the bad weather.

The meeting opened with a well-directed lecture on good roads, at which the great advantage of good roads over bad ones was forcibly demonstrated by the speaker, one of the gentlemen in charge, who told of various instances where decided improvements of all descriptions were due to the building of good substantial roads where there were before roads that were at times impassable. He demonstrated the fact that good roads helped towards business, education, religion, etc., both in the city and rural districts and before he ended his address he had firmly convinced the large audience not only of the value, but the absolute necessity of good roads.

Immediately after the lecture a large number of stereopticon views were thrown upon the canvas of roads in every section of the United States, before and after improvements, each picture telling a story, showing how the respective communities were improved, telling a short but interesting story of each picture as it was thrown upon the canvas.

After these had been shown he invited the entire assembly to pay a visit to the demonstration cars which had been moved up from the union station to the tracks in front of the theatre, and through driving rain almost every citizen who attended the meeting, and many more went to the train, where the various models were shown, these being operated by a gasoline engine. The crowd next assembled in the demonstration car where the various models of machinchinery and different roads were shown and explained to them.

To see these tiny machines running, approximately the same as the large ones was exceedingly interesting and the visit to the cars was well worth coming miles to see.

Mr. E. N. Clark, Agricultural and Immigration Agent of the Atlantic Coast Line, of Wilmington, joined the party this morning, and will continue with the train for some time during their tour.

The gentlemen expressed themselves as being well pleased with the attendance this morning and are assured had the weather conditions been favorable, there would have been a larger number from the rural districts who would have profited by the lecture and the demonstrations. They left promptly at 12.

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 28.—California's women voters are to be relieved of an embarrassing formality in registration if a bill introduced today in the Legislature should become a law. The measure provides that "over 21" shall be a sufficient answer to the age interrogation at registration.

That's what enthusiastic patrons say about The Grand Theatre. Better join the throngs. **

Perfect Skin

Dr. Woods Hutchinson, considered one of the most brilliant writers on modern therapeutics, says: "richness and freshness of color are and vigor of circulation. A good complexion exphatically comes from within; only imitations and poor ones at that can be painted, plastered or rubbed on from without. To look well you must be well." If you want the clean, clear complexion glowing with the crimson of pure blood, the bright sparkling eye and the happy expression that comes from vigorous healthy blood, ask your druggist about Milam. A blood purifier and reconstructive tonic standing alone and without competition. If you suspect any other preparation of being in its class we ask that you read the labels. Lots of advice freely given proves exceedingly costly if it is taken.

Do your Christmas shopping early so you can exchange what you buy if your wife refuses to have it.

A man who gets into a train of thought while crossing the street is likely to have a collision with an automobile.

The Houston Chronicle observes: "Of right, the world belongs to the workers." However, haven't they let the schemers get ahead of them?

If the world wants our cotton at eight cents, by George, it's got to credit us for something to eat or else we'll have to raise our own supplies.

Mr. Carnegie is reported as saying to Col. Roosevelt: "Mr. Roosevelt, you are a great man, but you splurge." Wonder if the ironmaster didn't mean splutter.

Dorothy Dix says: "Married ladies should cultivate the smile." They can't hardly be expected to do it when they are sure the old man's down town digging in his pocket for a smile.

It is now said the present day mystery is whether Cipio Castro is really in Venezuela. Whenever the news season begins to get dull, Castro is always expected to furnish some sort of item.

A New Hampshire woman while slicing a bologna sausage cut into a chunk of rubber which proved to be part of the tire of an automobile. The automobile seems determined to displace the horse in every particular.

If Rip Van Winkle should awake from another twenty years of sleep, he would say that the only thing he recognizes in the South is the same old hue and cry about how to keep from losing money raising cotton.

The astrologers of the Santa Clara (Cal.) College announce a sun spot 14,488 miles long by 4,268 miles wide. Nevertheless, the ladies will go right on buying the prettiest hats they can find in the millinery establishments.

The Gaikwar of Baroda says he doesn't care for American girls. The girls don't care. There's plenty of us to differ with that Indian prince. No doubt his ideal is some sort of a girl carrying a jug of water on her head.

The commercial traveling men of the country have agreed upon a movement to establish the tipping nuisance so prevalent in this country. The rich started it and the poor tried to do like the rich. That has made it a custom that will be hard to uproot.

Col. Roosevelt still insists that the Steel Trust didn't pull the wool over his eyes in that Tennessee Coal & Iron Company deal, in which he consented to a plain violation of the Sherman Act Upon reflection, most everybody will come to the conclusion that Col. Roosevelt's difficulty is in not knowing what's wool. By the way, the Colonel is in a very wee minority in trying to hold out against the facts of the investigations.

President Taft will be pleased to get a copy of the Philadelphia North American of Monday. By permission of Col. Roosevelt, the American repeats his declaration made a year ago that the Colonel will not be a candidate for President himself and that he will not endorse Taft or anybody else for the nomination. The Colonel proposes to keep quiet and let the whole shooting match go to smash. All President Taft asks is for the Colonel to quit keeping him on the tenterhooks by acting like he would be tickled to death to get in the running again.

THE POWDERED MILK INDUSTRY.

Science has now converted milk into a powerder, and we are told that it is to take the place of condensed milk. It is said that the success of the powdered milk process will be of far reaching importance, as it will open up the markets of the world to all the sources of milk supply, enabling people in remote rural districts to realize something on milk now thrown away.

It might be observed, however, that very little milk is thrown away in North Carolina. There are not cows enough for that, since in large areas of the country there are not enough good milkers to furnish country families with good butter and wholesome milk. We have been to several places in the country, expecting to get Jersey milk and fresh butter, but were astonished to find the people using condensed milk and buying Northern butter when they could get to town. In fact, we found Northern butter on sale at the country stores, and those who were buying it were kicking like steers because it took four pounds of cotton to purchase a pound of butter. Meanwhile, they were talking of the importance of building co-operative warehouses to store their cotton so it can be marketed gradually in order to hold up the price. We heard on all sides exultation over the announcement that New York financiers had agreed to furnish $50,000,000 to Southern cotton growers so they could hold up prices, the plan being to loan $25 on each bale of cotton stored in a warehouse or held under some good guarantee. Nobody didn't seem to exactly know how the thing was going to work, but while that $50,000,000 looks mighty good, you can have our share of it right now if our farmers are going to plant 35,000,000 acres in cotton instead of raising their own supplies on their own farms. We are in favor of all kinds of movements to get even 15 cents for cotton, but our plan is to raise all you can to supply the family and then produce cotton that somebody else wants for less than it costs to make it.

However, we have digressed, and must return to powdered milk. It is developing into a great industry in New Zealand where they do not raise cotton but where the farmers are prosperous and among the most progressive in the world. The New Zealanders furnished two tons of powdered milk for the expedition with which Lieut. Shackleton set out to discover the South Pole. Advantages for powdered milk over condensed milk are claimed. It is said to excel in keeping qualities and nutritive value, and that it is especially adapted for infants' food on account of its thorough sterilization and close resemblance to human milk. Of course, there is no room for the powdered milk industry in North Carolina, for we must first have enough thoroughbred cattle to furnish us some fresh milk and butter, and there is no reason why we shouldn't make our own cheese before we try powdered milk. We will have to start a number of co-operative dairies and then watch cotton take care of itself.

Powdered milk may be all right, but we haven't got far enough along for that. We have to diversify our crops and go into the stock business and quit yelling for somebody to help us out of the hole when we flood the market with cotton. We should raise our own corn, hay, food stuffs and feed commodities, and then we can produce our own milk, butter, beef and pork. This year Alabama has produced 66,000,000 bushels of corn which breaks the record in that State. The Boys' Corn Clubs probably had more to do with that than anything else, so the Montgomery Advertiser thinks. That paper also remarks that had the weather properly balanced itself there is no telling what the size of Alabama's corn crop would have been.

With plenty of corn, North Carolina could easily free itself from Chicago packing house "backband" and other tasteless hog products with all the fat pressed out of them. We brag every now and then about a few fine hogs killed in North Carolina, but for every native pig we butcher there should be a thousand. The Wilkes Patriot mentions that Mr. James Combs, a farmer who lives six miles from Wilkesboro, a few days ago killed four one-year-old pigs which weighed 1,424 pounds net, an average of 356 pounds for each year-old pig. According to the present price of pork, those four pigs would be worth not less than $213.60, about what a cotton grower could get for six bales of cotton which cost him more than that to make it. On cotton the farmers ordinarily swap dollars and that accounts for the backward condition of agriculture in this country.

While we are speaking about powdered milk, we might say that the Southern Commissioners of Agriculture and the representatives of the Cotton Congress were mighty clever in getting the cotton crop financed to the tune of $50,000,000, but if those gentlemen don't want to see cotton go to six cents a pound and the value of land decline to zero again, they had better preach diversification of crops instead of getting on our overcrop of cotton loans with which we are going to purchase higher priced food stuffs. Even now it requires about six bales of cotton to grub-stake a healthy farmer and a mule for a year's work, not to mention the cost of the cotton grower's clothing and other expenses. When we figure up what we have to buy with what we get for cotton, we will find that we will come out at the little end of the horn. We can't even indulge in powdered milk.

THE WEST RAIDS THE EAST

The Westerners have Southerners skinned to a finish as boosters. They seem to have more initiative and originality and plunge with boldness and confidence into all sorts of schemes to attract settlers to the West. They seem to plan while we are asleep, but what is the matter with our waking up and really getting in the game?

The Star has several times called attention to the fact hat Governor Strothers, of Maryland, has invited the Southern Governors to meet in Baltimore next week for the purpose of conferring with a view to getting the South's share of immigration arriving in this country. It seems also that the Western Governors have been invited and a number of them have accepted with a great flourish of trumpets. Of course, a number of Southern Governors will attend that Baltimore conference but they will slip in without much fuss or feathers.

Not so with your Western Governors. Take, for instance, the party composed of Governors A. O. Eberhart of Minnesota, John Shafroth of Colorado, Joseph M. Carey of Wyoming, R. S. Vessey of South Dakota, John Burke of North Dakota, James Hawley of Idaho, Edwin L. Norris of Montana, Oswald West of Oregon, Tasker Oddie of Nevada, M. E. Hay of Washington, H. W. Johnson of California, and former Governor James Brady of Idaho. Governor Brady is the organizer of this "expedition," as the Western Governors term their eastern trip.

There are eleven Governors and one ex-Governor in the expedition, and long ago they have had their day of publicity in the eastern papers. A group picture of the Governors, with a photograph of their special train, has appeared in the newspapers of the east and we even see it in the Havana Post. Accompanying the newspaper pictures is some catchy publicity matter that will impress the earnestness and business-like intention of the Western executives.

The Westerners are not so much after foreign immigrants as they are anxious to attract the attention of native Americans of the East. They are going to make a twenty-one day tour of the East and will "swing around the circle" in many States in which the people are showing signs of seeking homes in other States. In many States the people have the homeseekers' fever, and it is these that the smart Westerners are after. They are not coming in all their dignity but are coming for business. They will bring a train exhibit of the products of their States and will stop en route in all the States to let the crowds see what the west is doing and can do.

The Western Governors will take in the corn exposition at Chicago and will visit the Baltimore Governors' conference, and we ought to give them a hearty welcome for they will show us how to boost. They are coming after the very people we Southerners ought to be after and could get if we were to go after homeseekers in earnest.

Col. Frank Holland, of Texas, tells the Houston Chronicle that "lands in the lower Rio Grande Valley, now selling at $150 to $200 per acre, will sell in five years for $500 to $1,000 per acre." They will not if Texas plants another 10,858,000 acres in cotton and makes farm lands worthless by their failure to produce a profit.

Says the Charlotte Observer: "William Jennings Bryan has now turned against Champ Clark, one of his own most trustworthy and blind followers through all the years of his primacy in the Democratic party." This attempt to put the thing on Champ will cause people to think the Missouri statesman really is a Democratic eligible.

Owing to the fact that many people really do not know what mince pie is, Dr. Woods Hutchinson volunteers the information that "mince pie is an easily similable polysachrid carbohydrate of highly caloric efficiency." Of course, he is eminently correct, but he should have added that the magnitudinous effect of overindulgence in the likes of mince pie will be to make a man a family circle anarchist.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Federal incorporation and regulation of trusts is one of the demands of the National Association of Manufacturers as a cure for business depression. Is Federal incorporation to include that labor trust which the association wants prosecuted? — New York World.

The civic department of the Woman's Club never did a better piece of work than when it arranged for a "rest room" for the holiday shoppers. In this room visitors to the city—women and children—will find a veritable resting place, from which they can sally forth and return at will, and where they can wait for their trains instead of being obliged to "knock about town," a very tiresome occupation at best. The "rest room" idea is a splendid one and is calculated to add to Charlotte's popularity as a shopping center.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Uncle Sam is now raising most of the raisins his folks eat here at home Time was when importations of European raisins ran to 50,000,000 pounds a year. Today this country exports a million dollars worth of raisins yearly, and its imports have fallen below a quarter million dollars only 2,500,000 pounds last year, to be exact. California is the principal raisin State, but there are considerable areas in Southwestern Texas where raisins as fine as California's can be grown. All we need is men with knowledge and money to utilize our soil and climate.—Houston Chronicle.

Probably most newspaper readers have forgotten all about Leon Ling. He is the Chinese Sunday School scholar who is supposed to have murdered his Sunday School teacher, Elsie Seigel, in New York some two years ago. The search for Leon Ling has extended practically around the world and a hundred theories to account for his disappearance have been advanced. Now there comes a report from Cleveland that he has been found there and "positively identified." His arrest is to follow as soon as some few details can be arranged. It is probably a safe guess that the identification will prove faulty, and that the murder of the Seigel girl will remain a mystery.—Savannah News.

Of course Judge Allen knows more about the case than we pretend to know and more than we propose to find out, but it does seem that an enterprise that goes to great expense in starting an industry in Greensboro should not be handicapped by a permanent injunction forbidding the use of a trip hammer. This has just been done in the case instituted by citizens living near the factory of a boiler-making concern. They objected to the noise after the promoters had expended about $7,000 fitting up the place for the trip hammer alone. If those who started this institution in Greensboro will come to a city where the folks are accustomed to the signs and sounds of modern progress, we venture to say that they will not be disturbed. Charlotte is a city. Greensboro is—well, Greensboro is a pretty good town.—Charlotte Observer.

Now we begin to hear from farmers the cry, "Curtail the acreage!" and it is a very good cry—provided it is founded in common sense. There should be no curtailment of the cotton acreage for its own sake. Curtailment by itself, is waste. If a farmer can raise nothing but cotton, better would he raise cotton than nothing. To allow lands, mules and laborers to be idle is scarcely wiser than to produce cotton and burn it—and burning cotton bales was actually proposed by some persons a few years ago. So long as cotton production shall be deliberately reduced with no other motive than to deprive the world of cotton, the farmers will be speculators, and speculation is not farming and is not economy. Nor is curtailment in the use of fertilizers wise in itself. To fertilize judiciously but liberally is the most economic kind of farming and always will be. When the farm is practically self-sustaining, the speculative element is removed from farming operations. The farmer who has little to buy makes a profit, no matter what the prices be, if he has much to sell. If it cost nine cents a pound to produce cotton and the farmer produces the corn wheat, oats, forage, vegetables poultry and meat consumed on his farm and hires little or no labor the proceeds of the cotton are profit though he sells it for eight cents a pound. That is an arithmetical fact that no one will gainsay. The cotton acreage in the South should be lessened and considerably lessened because the South can raise other crops that it more needs. The surest, the safest, the most profitable agriculture in the South is that which produces foodstuffs and cotton, too. — Columbia State.

Debate With Swarthmore of Interest Postponed—Other News

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Trinity College, Durham, N. C., Nov. 28.—The debate between Trinity and Swarthmore College, of Pennsylvania, which was to have been held in February has been postponed to April. Trinity had several objections to the original question which dealt with the abolition of the Greek letter fraternities in colleges, and by the consent of Swarthmore that question was dropped and Trinity allowed to select the question on condition that the debate be postponed to April instead of February.

Prof. A. M. McCobb, of the German Department, read a paper on "The Faust Legend" before the Fortnightly Club at its regular meeting Friday night. Professor McCobb took up the gradual evolution development of the legend through the folk stories, and finally it expression as we read it today in the play of Marlow and Goethe's "Faust."

At the last regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. a committee of five men was appointed to nominate the new officers for the coming year who will be elected at the meeting next Wednesday night. The Y. M. C. A. at the college is in a most prosperous condition at present, and the year just closing has been about the best in the history of the association. The meetings are always attended by a large number of students, and great interest is manifested in the work. The association has about 200 members.

Manager F. S. Bennett has announced what he calls his final schedule for the Fall tour of the Trinity Glee Club. The schedule as it now stands is as follows: Clayton, December 11th; Louisburg, December 12th; Warrenton, December 13th; Littleton, December 14th; Oxford, December 15th; Creedmore, December 16th. It is expected that a preliminary concert will be given at West Durham before the tour begins, but the date has not been arranged as yet.

President W. P. Few, Professors R. L. Flowers, H. E. Spence, of the faculty, and Revs. B. B. Slaughter, L. D. Hayman, H. C. Smith and R. C. I. Edwards, of the student body, have returned from Kinston where they attended the session of the North Carolina Conference in that city last week.

COLD CHILLS PASSED OVER HER

Stanton Lady Has a Disagreeable Experience, but Is Able to Help Herself As Well As Her Daughters

Stanton, Mo.—"I felt a throbbing," says Mrs. Cora Armistead, of Stanton, "in my left side, and I suffered for months with womanly troubles.

Cold chills would pass all over me, and I would get so weak at times that I would have to lie down. I bought a bottle of Cardui, and by the time it was taken, I was feeling better, so I tried another bottle, and by the time that was gone, my troubles had left me entirely.

I have been healthier, since I took Cardui, than ever before in my life. There is no medicine, anywhere, better than Cardui.

I have not only taken it myself, but both my daughters, who were very delicate, have been helped by Cardui more than anything they ever tried."

The best way to cure womanly troubles, pains, headache, backache, etc., is to help nature, by taking Cardui.

Cardui is a true tonic. It helps to build up the delicate womanly constitution, and brings health and strength to the system.

Fifty years of success, in relieving aches and pains of other weak and ailing women, is proof that Cardui should help you, too. Try it.

GRANOLITHIC SIDEWALKS

Ordered Put Down on Streets Soon to Be Improved--Certain Obstructions on Princess Must be Removed

Except the adoption of a resolution requiring persons having property abutting on certain streets soon to be improved to lay granolithic sidewalks in front of their respective lots and another requiring the removal of iron railings and steps projecting on the sidewalks on Princess, between Water and Second streets, the time of the City Council in regular session yesterday afternoon was taken up largely with matters of no general importance. It was a short session for a regular meeting, lasting only little more than an hour.

Mayor Joseph D. Smith presided and in attendance were all members; also Capt. Thos. D. Meares, the clerk; Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, and City Attorney Herbert McClammy. Postmaster Thos. E. Wallace was before the Council with regard to the paving on Ann street, between Fifth and Sixth, stating that the work did not come up to the specifications in that the brick are out of line, and, besides, there is too much space between the brick, admitting the accumulation of germs, etc. Councilman P. Q. Moore, in charge of the Department of Streets and Wharves, stated that the matter had been called to his attention already and that the city engineer had notified the contractor that the work would not be accepted and paid for until it came up to specifications.

A bill presented by Mr. H. H. Grant, the plumbing inspector, for inspection of some plumbing, was not allowed, Councilman Tiencken stating that the Council could not make an appropriation for inspection of plumbing, payment for which is provided for by a city ordinance. Upon recommendation of the health department the contract for making repairs at the pest house was awarded to Mr. R. J. Sykes at $200. This was the lowest bid, the next lowest being $296. Councilman Tiencken said that there is about $5,000 due on taxes that it appears can only be collected by suit and recommended that the city attorney institute suit, and this was ordered. The city attorney was instructed to bring suit today against the Atlantic Coast Line and others who have declined to pay the special privilege or license tax.

Councilman P. Q. Moore offered the following resolution with regard to streets and it was unanimously adopted:,

'Be it Resolved, by the City Council, and it is hereby directed by the same:

"1. That the property owners on Red Cross, from Fourth to Fifth streets; Third, from Red Cross to Castle; Fourth, from Red Cross to Castle; Fifth, from Red Cross to Castle; Market, from Water to Fourth streets; Front, from depot to Castle, be required to lay granolithic sidewalks in front of their respective lots, in accordance with the provisions of Section 17 of the act of the Legislature, authorizing the City of Wilmington o issue bonds for street improvements.

"2 That the clerk and treasurer be directed to issue proper notices as required by the act referred to, notifying property owners to lay sidewalks in conformity with said act.

"3 All such sidewalks sha be subject to the inspection and approval of the city engineer."

Councilman Perdew again mentioned the complaint of citizens about Sunday selling. He said that one man told him a few days ago that children on their way to Sunday School stop in the fruit and confectionary stores and spend the pennies, nickles and dimes, which they were given to take to Sunday School, and the Councilman remarked that the temptation should be removed from the little tots. Councilman B. C. Moore said that the druggists of the city recently formed an organization and some of the members seem to be in favor of some closing arrangement. The matter, he said, would be discussed at a meeting to be held this week. There was some further discussion of Sunday selling, but nothing definite resulted.

Councilman B. C. Moore asked the city attorney to draw a resolution providing for the immediate removal of the iron railing projecting on the sidewalk on the south side of Princess, between Front and Second streets, which he did. Mayor Smith objected to the resolution because it did not require the removal of steps as well as railings and did not include more territory. Councilman Moore accepted an amendment to have the order apply to both sides of Princess from Water to Second streets, the following being the resolution that was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the chief of police of the City of Wilmington be and he is hereby notified to notify the owners of property on Princess, between Water and Second streets, to remove all iron railings and steps adjoining their property obstructing the streets and place the sidewalk in condition so as to conform to the street lines and grades."

Councilman B. C. Moore made a request for a light in Love's alley, between Harnett and Swan and Sixth and Seventh streets, and sta. also that the light at Fourth and Brunswick streets is reported out early at night. The light will be given as requested and the complaint as to the light at Fourth and Brunswick will be given attention.

The matter of the resignation of Sergeant C. S. Burnett as a member of the police department, was not brought up at the meeting. Councilman B. C. Moore, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, did not receive the resignation until yesterday afternoon, and he said that he desired a few days to consider the matter of a successor.

The meeting adjourned shortly after 5 o'clock.

MERCHANTS DINE TOGETHER

Enthusiastic and Largely Attended Meeting in Masonic Temple Last Evening—Several Fine Talks Were Made.

Emphasizing the fact that Wilmington has one of the livest merchants' associations in the State, half a hundred leading retail dealers assembled in the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple last night and following a delightful supper discussed for nearly two hours various points pertaining to the mercantile business with particular reference to credits and rating systems.

It was one of the largest attended and most enthusiastic meetings the association has ever held and no one left the hall feeling that he had not been benefitted by the talks and discussions. The supper itself was sufficient to attract the large number who were present. Besides, there had been promised a fine programme of talks and one address. The address was to have been delivered by Mr. Chas. N. Evans, president of the Southern National Bank, who was prevented from being present on account of illness in his family. It was with regret that this announcement was made by President A. M. Hall, of the association. As it happened, there were many other good features of the programme and things kept moving pretty lively all the evening.

Mr. E. H. Munson, who was one of the delegates to the State convention at Hendersonville last June, told interestingly something of what was done at that meeting. He was heard with absorbing interest and injected just enough humor in his remarks to hold the wrapt attention of the merchants the entire time he was on the floor. While he was too modest to say so, Mr. Munson took a prominent part in that convention, although it was the first meeting of the State association he ever attended. Mr. Munson made some discoveries at the convention, chief among which was that the State association has among its numbers many men who are not only successful merchants and splendid business men, but men of a splendid literary education. The next convention goes to Raleigh, but there is every reason to believe that Wilmington can secure the 1913 convention.

About the time Mr. Munson was in attendance at the merchants' convention Mr. S. R. Keyes, secretary of the local association, was present at the National Association of Credit Men and heard many fine addresses bearing upon credits. One of these addresses appealed so strongly to the directors of the Wilmington association that they asked that it be read to the meeting last night. President Hall presented Mr. Keyes and he read the address, which gave in detail the plan of co-operative credit reporting that is used in Indianapolis, Ind. Many splendid points were brought out in the address and some will doubtless be found of value in the management of the local association.

President Hall made a plea for greater co-operation among the members of the association in the way of furnishing to the secretary promptly data regarding persons to whom they extend credit. Mr. Ike Solomon gave two reasons why he considered it of great value to the merchant to furnish the central office with data. First, if all the members furnish data each member gets the benefit of information given by 65 members. As a second reason, he told of a person who owed several bills here arranging to move out of the State some time ago. The goods were placed in a box car at the depot. The secretary heard of it and attached the property for the merchants for whom he had accounts. There were several other members of the association having accounts against the person, but the secretary did not know this because the merchants had failed to furnish him the necessary data. They lost their accounts while the other merchants got all that was due them. Mr. Solomon himself was one of the merchants who had not furnished the information, but as luck would have it he heard of the attachment and got his claim entered. He will have detailed information as to his customers ready for the association in a few days, he said last night.

Others who made remarks were Mr. J. H. Rehder, Mr. J. W. H. Fuchs and Mr. J. M. Solky.

Mr. Rehder suggested that at the next supper and meeting each merchant bring one or more of his employes. This met the approval of the meeting and will probably be adopted.

A feature that added decidedly to the meeting was the singing of the Acme Male Quartette, composed of Messrs. W. R. and Albert Dosher, W. B. Muse and W. A. McGirt, who rendered several selections, among which were "Carve That 'Possum So," "Juanita," and "I Stood on the Bridge at Midnight." The quartette was loudly applauded and received the high praise of all present.

AUTOMOBILE DAMAGED.

Machine Owned by Mr. Joe Starkey Struck by Street Car.

An automobile belonging to Mr. Joe Starkey was run into and damaged to the extent of about $75 or $100 last evening at 11th and Princess streets by the 6:30 outward bound suburban car on the Tidewater Power Company's beach line. Mr. Starkey's car was being towed into the city by another car and when the car line crossing was reached and the first machine was already across, the weight of the dead car stalled the engine and the second machine came to a stop with the front across the tracks just as the street car came up at a speed which could not be checked and the collision occurred. Fortunately, only the front of the car was across the tracks and the street car pushed this aside. Had the car been full across the track the result might have been different.

Dance at Lumina Tonight.

Employes of the trolley line of the Tidewater Power Company will enjoy a Tranksgiving dance at Lumina tonight, and the affair promises to be very enjoyable as well as largely attended. Music will be furnished by a good orchestra, and to cover the expense of the orchestra the sum of 50 cents will be charged the gentlemen dancing.

COLD WEATHER PROMISED--BUT

Looks Like Government Bureau Will Fall Down on Prediction for Once. Thanksgiving Day in Wilmington.

Shades of Willis Moore!

Is the Weather Bureau of the United States going to fall down on a prediction of cold weather for Thanksgiving Day? So it appeareth at least. For this great institution to make a prophecy that did not come true, even on an ordinary occasion, what a calamity it would be, but for it to make so grievous a blunder as to promise clear cold weather for Thanksgiving Day and then fall down, would be too much and sorrow would stalk abroad throughout the land.

Thoroughly disgusted by a wet and sticky downpour that lasted for the greater part of the day, the populace took renewed hope yesterday when the little brown warning card issued by the local weather station appeared. For did it not promise for Wilmington and vicinity rain and much colder last night and for today fair and a cold wave, with high northwest winds? Everybody smiled again and began to look forward to a Thanksgiving Day with real old-fashioned Thanksgiving weather, cool and crisp and bracing.

But alas! As time sped on in its measureless flight and the big clock in the Court House tower tolled off the hours one by one last night it began to appear that the government's forecasting machinery must have slipped a cog somewhere. For the cold wave did not appear, but instead, it grew warmer if anything. And even beyond the midnight hour last night the cold wave was still noticeable because of its absence, and as for winds; why not even so much as a breath of air was stirring. Perhaps, between the time that the paper goes to press and the time when it greets the reader at the breakfast table, the weather will have undergone the desired change, thus vindicating Willis and his army of weather makers, and the hearts of the people will rejoice again. It is to be devoutly hoped so, but the chances appeared slim early this morning.

However, whether the weather is warm or cold, Wilmingtonians will enjoy a happy Thanksgiving anyway for there are many events booked for the day and no matter what may be the likes or tastes of the pleasure seeker he must surely be able to find something to occupy his attention.

For one thing, there is the football game between the Wilmington and Raleigh High School teams, and it promises to be one of the best contests of its kind that has ever been witnessed in the city. The game will begin at League Park promptly at 3:30 o'clock and a convenient schedule will be maintained by the power company. Another event is the shooting match at Greenfield, and this will also probably draw a large attendance.

Then there is the excursion to Southport, over the W., B. & S., which will give those who care to go the opportunity of visiting the pretty little seaport city at the mouth of the Cape Fear. In addition this trip will be availed of by numerous doughty nimrods, who will invade the wilds of Brunswick county with dog and gun in search of the fine sport to be had after quail, squirrel, wild turkey and the other game native to that section. Others will go hunting in New Hanover and Pender counties, for Thanksgiving Day is always a day on which to go hunting to many and the woods are alive with the scatter-gun artists on that occasion.

Out at the Cape Fear Country Club the members will pass the day enjoying the annual golf tournament, oyster roast and luncheon, and that pleasant affair will doubtless be as popular as ever.

To the newsboys and the poor boys of the city the Salvation Army will give a Thanksgiving dinner in their hall on Market street and about 100 little fellows will enjoy the good things prepared for them. In addition the usual baskets will be distributed to the deserving poor of the city by the Salvation Army and many a home will have the darkness lifted by this ray of kindness.

There will be the usual services at the churches, of course, and these, as always, will be largely attended. Special music appropriate for the day will be rendered by the different choirs.

The Tidewater Power Company has announced that it will operate a half-hour schedule over the beach line in the afternoon and doubtless many people who have not been to Wrightsville Beach since the Summer season will take advantage of the fact and run down for a glimpse of the blue Atlantic.

However, there is still hope that the cold weather may yet arrive and that the reputation of the government's forecasters will be sustained by fact.

CONTINUE INSPECTIONS.

Police Still Making Search for Whiskey and Beer.

The police continue to make inspections of near-beer places for whiskey and beer under authority given them by what is known as the "search ordinance." They merely make a memorandum of what they find and make report to Chief of Police Fowler, who files the information for future reference. The following are among the places inspected during the past few days and the officers making the search:

ALL-DAY SESSION YESTERDAY

Negro Charged With Burglary Dismissed, Probable Cause Not Being Found—Several Other Cases Disposed Of.

Following an all-day session of the Recorder's court yesterday, Sam Bouie, colored, charged with the capital offense of burglary, was dismissed late yesterday afternoon, probable cause not having been found. The session was presided over by Deputy Recorder George Harriss. Bouie was defended by A. G. Ricaud, Esq., and City Prosecuting Attorney Geo. L. Peschau represented the State. The case was hard-fought throughout and a number of witnesses were introduced by each side.

Bouie was charged with having broken into the home of Mary Jones, colored, on Eighth street, between Nixon and Taylor, and stolen an alligator skin suit case or grip and a woman's cloak on the morning of November 23rd, between 4 and 5 o'clock.

The State introduced Mary Jones, who testified that she saw Bouie put his arm through a window in her room and take the cloak off the wall; that she got up and chased him for some distance and that she caught up with him and saw him carrying the alligator grip and cloak, but that she was unable to hold him and that he got away from her.

Ben Price and Joe McCaleb, two negroes, who were sleeping in an adjoining room in the house that night, testified that they saw Bouie raise the window and take the bag, but that by the time they had dressed, the man had disappeared. They later went to his house, they said, and also to the Independent Ice Company's plant, where Bouie was employed, but could not find him.

Bouie testified that he had been having trouble with his wife and that for the past few months she had refused to stay at home at night, and that on the night of the 22nd she had not come in at a late hour and that he went to Mary Jones house, where his little daughter had told him his wife had gone, to look for her. He stated that he went to the house and as he drew near he could hear his wife talking with those on the inside, but that when he went on the porch and knocked on the door, asking for his wife, he was informed that she was not there, and that he then left the place to avoid having trouble. He met Mounted Officers Coleman and Thompson on the streets and asked them if they could assist him in getting his wife out of the house and said that they told him they were afraid that they could not. The negro testified that at this juncture the officers were called away by something and that he again saw them at the Independent Ice Company later in the night, or in the early morning, but that nothing was done to get his wife out of the house.

The defense then put on Officers Coleman and Thompson, who corroborated the negro's testimony as to the meeting and his request that they help him get his wife out of the house, but said that he had specified no particular house. They said that when they saw him at the ice plant about 3 o'clock he seemed very much worried over something.

Several other witnesses were put on by the defense, one of them being Bouie's daughter, who corroborated his testimony in regard to his wife leaving home and said she had told her father that his wife, her stepmother, had gone to Mary Jones' house on the night the robbery was alleged to have occurred.

Several character witnesses testified as to Bouie's excellent character and two colored employes of the Independent Ice Company, who work with Bouie testified that they saw him at the plant at 5 o'clock on the morning on which the robbery is alleged to have occurred.

Lengthy arguments were made by counsel of both sides, the State contending that probable cause was the only question to be considered by the Recorder and asking that the defendant be bound over to the Superior court. The defense contended that that probable cause had not been shown and asked that Bouie be dismissed, which view was taken by the acting Recorder.

James Melton and Hazel Lewis, both white, were charged with vagrancy. Both were found guilty and the woman received a straight sentence of 30 days on the county farm, while Melton was given the alternative of paying a fine of $25 and costs or going to the roads for 30 days. The man and woman were found asleep in the building belonging to the Wilmington Gun Club at 17th and Castle streets, early yesterday morning.

Brought Counter Charge.

Mr. John H. Flake was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Melvin Horne on a warrant charging him with an assault upon Mrs. W. J. Barnes, of No. 613 Church street. It is alleged that the assault occurred on Monday night and that the man knocked Mrs. Barnes down several times. Mr. Flake then took out warrant for Mr. and Mrs. Barnes charging them with an assault upon him. Justice Harriss recognized all for their appearance before him this afternoon at 5 o'clock when the cases will be heard.

DID WHAT SHE HOPED

It is a real pleasure to find that something you have bought is just as good as you hoped it would be, and Mrs. Charles Proper of West Scranton, Pa., writes a letter to tell others her experience. She says:

"I was all run down and very weak, and had been so for three years. I am sure that Vinol has helped me very much, for four bottles of it have brought back my strength, which is just what I was told it would do."

When we recommend Vinol for all weak and run-down people, and those who have stubborn coughs, lack of appetite, sleeplessness and nervous conditions, we do so because we are absolutely convinced that it is just what they need. Then if Vinol does not satisfy them perfectly we give back the money. You ought to try Vinol, if you wish to be strong and well for you take no risk at all.—Robt R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. CONFERENCE CONVENES TODAY.

Forty-Eighth Annual Session of A. M. E. Zion Church.

(By Geo. F. King.)

The 48th annual session of the North Carolina annual conference of the A. M. E. Zion church will begin at 10 A. M. today in St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion church, this city, Bishop Alex. Walter, D. D., one of the most prominent leaders and bishops of his race, will preside. This is the last conference preceding the quadrennial meeting of the denomination at Charlotte, next May. Among the many interesting features of this conference is the election of delegates to represent the Charlotte conference at the general conference.

Last night the members of St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion church held an enthusiastic meeting. Rev. Dr. White, the pastor of the church, made his report and it was received with eclat. He has raised during the year over $8,000 for all purposes and had 259 accessions. The church has been repaired and is a credit to the activities of the pastor and members. There about 300 ministers, delegates and visitors from various sections of the country in the city. Dr. White is prominently mentioned for the office of general secretary when the general conference meets in Charlotte.

There will be three sessions today beginning at 10 A. M., 2:30 and 8 P. M. The annual sermon will be preached tonight by Rev. R. H. Sawyer, after which the Holy Communion will be administered. Tomorrow night will be quite an event. The welcome addresses will be delivered. The Mayor will deliver the welcome address in behalf of the city. Other prominent speakers who will deliver welcome addresses are Rev. Drs. G. D. Carnes, J. A. Bonner, Dr. F. W. Avant and R. S. Jervay. The responses will be delivered by Hon. J. O. Dancy, Revs. J. W. McDonald, S. D. Conrad, R. A. H. Carroll and E. S. W. Simmons.

PEOPLE'S B. & L.

New Series of Stock Opens Saturday —Its Beneficient Work

The People's Building & Loan Association, which has recently moved its headquarters with the real estate agency of D. R. Foster & Co., to its handsome new quarters on Princess street, announces that it will open a new series of stock on Saturday of this week and those who are seeking an investment or the foundations for the building of a home should call at the office and talk the matter over with the secretary. This Association has assisted in building 500 homes in Wilmington and vicinity and has loaned over $1000,000 to shareholders. With this mammoth business, it has never sustained a loss and its affairs are safely and judiciously administered. The officers are Wm. E. Kerdew, president; J. W. H. Fuchs, vice president; Woodus Kellum and Chas. C. Loughlin, attorneys and D. R. Foster, secretary and treasurer.

Disabled Schooner Sold.

The disabled schooner Stephen G. Loud, which was towed here in a waterlogged condition some time ago, has been sold to Mr. F. A. McCullough, of Norfolk, through the insurance companies. The Loud is loaded with lumber, and the cargo is intact with the exception of that part of it which was loaded on the deck. The schooner was picked up abandoned at sea by the derelict destroyer Seneca and towed into Southport, and from there to this port by the tug Reliance.

SUGGESTS LOAN OF THEATRE.

Lecture Car Probably Not Large Enough to Hold Crowd.

Mayor Joseph D. Smith yesterday received a letter from Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, State Geologist and secretary of the North Carolina Good Roads Association, with regard to the visit of the Atlantic Coast Line Good Roads train to Wilmington on December 13th. The train will arrive in Wilmington at 12:54 P. M. and will leave at 3:24, stopping a little over two hours in the city. Dr. Pratt suggested that owing to the fact that the space in the lecture car is limited and that there will undoubtedly be a large attendance at the lecture in Wilmington, that the Mayor make arrangements with one of the local moving picture houses for the loan of its hall and apparatus for the occasion. Mayor Smith will probably take up the matter with the moving picture theatre men this morning. He will hardly have any trouble in securing the hall of either of the motion picture theatres.

BANQUET LAST NIGHT IN PARLORS OF Y. M. C. A.

In the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. last night the membership committee of the association enjoyed a thoroughly delightful banquet served by the Ladies' Auxiliary and a most pleasing evening was spent. The menu was a delightful one and the attractive and appetizing dainties served by the ladies were duly appreciated by the young men. Several of the members made short talks during the evening, boosting the Y. M. C. A. enthusiastically, and many of them prophecied that Wilmington will have in the near future the new association building that she needs so badly, a prophecy which was heartily applauded by the entire gathering. The speakers brought out the facts that the Y. M. C. A. is doing big things the world over and that the local association is keeping right in line with the march of progress—in every way except in the matter of equipment. With the proper equipment, they declared, the Wilmington Association will do a greater work than any city in the Carolinas.

First Games Last Night

The opening games in the bowling series at the Boys' Brigade armory last night attracted a large and enthusiastic atendance and the interest manifested speaks well for the attendance at the future games. In the first game Captain Harry Register's team defeated Capt. Simon Branch's team by 21 pins and Capt. A. H. Elmer's team took the second game from Capt. C. C. Loughlin's team to the tune of 26 pins. The bowlers manifested good form and it is expected that some fine sport will be witnessed as the series progresses.

Last Talk Today.

Today at noon Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, will give the last of his series of talks on the "Humanity of Christ" to the men at the A. C. L. shops. For several Wednesdays past Dr. Milton has been giving this series of interesting talks and his hearers will regret that today will bring the series to an end. The meetings have been under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and both the association and the employees at the shops feel deeply indebted to Dr. Milton.

Young Mothers

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both she and her coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby too is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

Dante's "Inferno," as illustrated in wonderful moving pictures, representing what is the biggest outlay in money ever invested in any one subject in the motion picture world, was presented again yesterday at the Academy and was greatly enjoyed. This enjoyment didn't come from the delight of amusement, but from the wholesome lesson to be drawn from the weird, and often ghastly scenes. The pictures are a wonderful animated story of "The Inferno", as so powerfully depicted by the great poet. They are clear, vivid and most striking, and in their awfulness teach a big lesson. While sin is graphically shown and the torture of the wicked is held up before the vision, yet a bright moral is always gleaming—to live a better life and not to abandon hope.

During the presentation of the pictures, which are on five reels, a fine voiced lecturer interestingly explains the different scenes, and also tells many valuable things of the life of Dante. Organ renditions during the presentation richly adds to the atmosphere.

"The Inferno" will be offered again at matinee this afternoon, beginning at 3:30 o'clock, and for the last time tonight. Seats are now selling at Plummer's.

"The Thief."

The great success, "The Thief" which comes to the Academy for matinee and night tomorroy evening, is a play for women to talk about. Ever since its production in Paris, where it created a sensation, and in New York, where it caused all the dramatic reviewers to exhaust themselves in columns of praise, the women of both countries have used it as the chief topic of conversation for months after witnessing a performance.

"The Thief" exposes the inner workings of a woman's heart—a woman so deeply in love with her husband as to go to any lengths to please and to satisfy him.

Seats for both performances will go on sale this morning at Plummer's. The prices for night will be up to $1.50 and the $1.50 and $1 seats will be on sale. For matinee the prices will go to 50 and 75 cents, and the 50 and 75 cents seats will be on sale at Plummer's.

At The Bijou

To be sure yesterday was a chill and otherwise disagreeable day, but folks who attended. The Bijou, and there were quite a big bunch, too, in spite of the weather, never for one moment thought of such. All was warm and cozy within the popular Bijou and one of the brightest bills ever offered in Wilmington was presented. The fact that The Bijou did good business in spite of the weather showed conclusively that it is an established fact, and one well-known, that the ugly nature of the elements makes no difference to those who go to The Bijou, because it is the place of solid comfort, as well as being the "joy spot."

So even if the weather is cold today remember that a warm time, as well as a warm reception awaits you at The Bijou. The bill today is composed of the very latest in the film line and the very freshest and best in the musical line. Among the films is a fine story of modern life, "His Brother's Double," and along with stirring action it teaches a splendid lesson. In fact, it is always what is wholesome at The Bijou. Among the rest of the photo-play gems is a daisy of a Western romance, "How Texas Got Left," which is something decidedly out of the ordinary.

At The Grand.

In spite of the disagreeable weather of yesterday, all was comfortable and cozy at The Grand Theatre and the crowds were there to see the big offering of the day. Today, sunshine or rain, poverty or wealth, the Grand will offer three high-grade reels of motion pictures including as a topliner a Vitagraph, "A Message From Beyond." This is a striking drama of the redemption of a wayward son from his folly by the spirit of a mother's love. It is a story of magnetic power and one that will appeal to all. Another pretty story will be "A Gypsy Bride", portraying love under Western skies, a powerful subject of compelling interest. The third picture will be one that is interesting to everyone and will have a rich vein of comedy that is sure to please. Mr. Morgan will render a beautiful ballad, "Star of My Dreams, Shine On." There is no place better than The Grand where the latest and best pictures are always shown and with full value for every penny left at the door of admission.

Saved Many from Death

W. L. Mock, of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe its the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free, or regular 50c. or $1.00 bottle. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

Will Open Bids Today

Bids will be opened today at noon in the office of the city clerk and treasurer for the remaining $50,000 worth of the water and sewerage and street improvement bonds. The bonds are to run for 40 years and bear interest at the rate of 4 1-2 per cent. They cannot be sold for less than par. It is not improbable that the local banks will make attractive offers for the issue and out-of-town bond brokers may also make a stir bid.

NORTH CAROLINA'S GRANDSON.

Governor Noel, of Mississippi, Proud of His Ancestry.

The following appeared as an editorial in yesterday's Charlotte Observer and will be read with considerable local interest:

"Governor Noel, of Mississippi, will attend the Conference of Governors and Railroad Presidents in Baltimore on December 8th. Nobody knows just exactly what the conference will do—the country is flooded with conferences, but Governor Noel does not intend that, because he hails from Mississippi, anybody shall think for a moment that he is the least bit like Senator Vardaman. In a letter to the Baltimore Evening Sun, he says: 'My grandfather, Daniel M. Dulaney, who came from North Carolina, to Mississippi as one of the early settlers in central Mississippi, was of the Maryland family of Dulaneys. On his account I have always felt a lively interest in Maryland and its people.' Naturally, the governor should wish it to be understood that he is a grandson of North Carolina. Nearly everybody, it seems to us, who is at all worth while was either born in North Carolina, or had some relatives or friends who started or who live in this State."

Governor Noel has many relatives in this city and section and visited them two or three months ago, being most cordially greeted by them.

MIDDLE SOUND TODAY.

Hookworm Dispensaries Opened Yesterday at Castle Haynes.

Although it rained practically all day, there were 53 persons to visit the hookworm dispensary at Castle Haynes yesterday and they were examined by Dr. C. L. Pridgen, who has charge of the work in this county. About 50 per cent. were found to be infected and are receiving free treatment. The percentage is considered slightly below the average, this being due probably to the fact that most of those examined were elderly people. The younger people will probably be examined next Tuesday, when Dr. Pridgen will visit Castle Haynes again, and the percentage of infection, it is expected, will be greater. Dr. Pridgen is very well pleased with the attendance the first day in view of the weather conditions. Today he will be at Middle Sound and tomorrow he visits Greenville Station. He will be at Myrtle Grove Friday and at the Court House in Wilmington Saturday.

Bowels are Basis of Child Health

The careful mother, who watches closely the physical peculiarities of her children, will soon discover that the most important thing in connection with a child's constant good health is to keep the bowels regularly open. Sluggish bowels will be followed by loss of appetite, restlessness during sleep, irritability and a dozen and one similar evidences of physical disorder.

At the first sign of such disorder give the child a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at night on retiring and repeat the dose the following night if necessary—more than that will scarcely be needed. You will find that the child will recover its accustomed good spirits at once and will eat and sleep normally.

This remedy is a vast improvement over salts, cathartics, laxative waters and similar things, which are altogether too powerful for a child. The homes of Mrs. Vallie Utley, Keyser, N. C., and Mrs. E. L. Hair, Dalton, Ga., are always supplied with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and with them, as with thousands of others, there is no substitute for this grand laxative. It is really more than a laxative, for it contains superior tonic properties which help to tone and strengthen the stomach, liver and bowels so that after a brief use of it all laxatives can be dispensed with and nature will do its own work.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

COTTON MARKET RALLIED

Opening Steady at An Advance of Four Points—Receipts at Ports —Spot Closed Dull— Futures

New York, November 28.—After making new low records for the season early today, owing to continued reports of freer Southern spot offerings, the cotton market rallied on covering, and closed very steady, at a net advance of 1@25 points. The opening was steady at an advance of 4 point to a decline of 1 point, with December 4 points higher on covering by scattered shorts, and in sympathy with rather steadier cables than looked for.

There were Southern selling orders in the market, however, the circulation of December notices estimated at about 35,000 bales appeared to be causing some liquidation by trailing longs, and the whole list turned easier right after the call under the offerings from these sources, and aggressive pressure from Wall Street, or up-town bears. December broke from 9.12 to 9.01, and the general list sold about 6 to 8 points net lower during the middle of the morning, but around this level covering of shorts at moderate demand from trade sources and a little buying here against sales in Liverpool proved sufficient to check the decline.

Trading later was less active and the market gradually worked up on realizing by shorts for over Thanksgiving, and a little buying for a reaction. Last prices were within a point or two of the best on the active months. Leading spot interests were credited with stopping the notices issued against December contracts and after they had ceased to circulate, it looked as though local sellers became a little less aggressive. Texas people were credited with selling here during the day and wires were received from the Southwest, claiming increased pressure of low grade cotton against the market. The estimates of 183 members of the New York cotton exchange, compiled late yesterday, ranged from 14,250,000 to 17,000,000 bales for the commercial crop, and averaged 15,238,000 bales, comparing with the recent average estimate of the Liverpool cotton association of 14,811,000 bales. A prominent Memphis trade interest issued an estimate placing the comercial crop at 15,800,000 bales minimum. Colder and unsettled weather was reported in the South, but seemed to attract little attention, although considered unfavorable for ginning.

Receipts at the ports today, 100,000 bales, against 99,488 last week, and 88,150 last year. For the week, 475,000 bales, against 487,761 last week and 438,567 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 10,007, against 20,473 last year, and at Houston, 20,847 against 18,049 last year.

Spot closed dull; middling uplands, 9.30; do. gulf, 9.55; sales, none.

Futures closed very steady.

STOCKS APPEARED CONFUSED

Caused by Irregular and Contradictory Movements—Small Gains at the Close—Money Rates Advance

New York, Nov. 28.—Irregular and contradictory movements gave the stock market a confused appearance today. Quotations gave way under the force of professional selling after a fairly strong opening. During the remainder of the day, until just before the close, the list was weak, although the movement was comparatively narrow and only a few stocks lost more than a point. In the last fifteen minutes of trading there was a complete change. An active buying movement dispelled the weakness of the market, and prices bounded upward, until at the close a large proportion of the list registered small gains. In some cases active stocks were pushed up 2 points from the low prices of the day, under the impulse of the sudden outburst and closed with gains of a point.

Traders were bearish. The attack on United States Steel was especially vigorous, perhaps because of reports from Washington that the Stanley committee was not to be terminated on account of the government's dissolution suit. Reports in regard to the Steel trade were conflicting.

Money rates made a further advance today. Some call loans were made at 3¾ per cent., the highest figure since the first of the year, and time rates were stronger.

Bonds declined after some irregularity. The local traction issues were purchased heavily at advances of 1 to 3 points. Total sales, par value, $4,680,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day, 508,500 shares.

HENRY CABOT LODGE SPEAKS.

More Than 3,000 Hear Him Last Night at Raleigh.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 28.—Before an intelligent audience three thousand and more people, in part composed of delegates to the annual meeting of the North Carolina State Library and Historical Society, Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, tonight delivered an address in the Raleigh city auditorium.

His subject was the making of the constitution, and his address was scholarly and statesmanlike, as comported with the experience and reputation of the distinguished New Englander.

While many of his scholarly auditors did not agree with the speaker in his viewpoint and argument and criticisms as a whole, the address was well received and enjoyed.

After speaking, Senator Lodge was the guest of honor at an elaborate reception and banquet tendered by ex-Judge R. W. Winston, and distinguished Democratic lawyer, at one of the leading hotels.

The company present included many of the city and State's most distinguished men and charming women, and was an elegant function.

Senator Lodge leaves late tonight for Washington, where he will arrive shortly after noon Wednesday.

would have fallen on any one who attacked the son of Peter Bondy, of South Rockwood, Mich., but he was powerless before attacks of Kidney trouble. Backache, Tired Feeling, Nervousness, Loss of Appetite, warn of Kidney trouble that may end in dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Beware: Take Electric Bitters and be safe. ANOTHER BEATTIE LETTER.

Expressed Full Confidence and Resignation to His Fate.

Richmond, Va., November 28.—Another letter written by Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., shortly before he was executed for the murder of his wife, was made public today by W. H. Gates, who took a deep interest in Beattie while the youth awaited execution.

The letter, apparently expressing full confidence felt by Beattie that peace had been made with his Maker, reads:

"Dear Mr. Gates: I am unable to think of words that would fully express my appreciation of the interest which you seemed to take in trying to prepare me for the great beyond; though I can assure you that your efforts were not all in vain.

"So many things in the Bible you explained to me which I never understood before. I only hope and pray that you will be able to enlighten others so that they may be prepared.

"If I were free I would ask for no greater joy than to bring others to God.

"One night I will never forget, and that was the occasion when your wife and dear little girls sang for me. Give my love to them and remember that I am praying for you all, that 'God be with you 'till we meet again.' Farewell. HENRY BEATTIE, JR."

FOR SOUTHERN MONUMENTS

Sons of Veterans Plan to Raise Great Sum for Purpose

Memphis, Nov. 28.—Two hundred thousand dollars will be raised by the United Sons of Confederate Veterans to erect monuments to the memory of Southern soldiers and to the memory of Southern women who were active in the cause of the South during the Civil War. Plans to secure the money were discussed by the executive council of the organization at its annual meeting here, but no conclusion was reached. A majority of the members appeared to favor the inauguration of a campaign asking voluntary contributions in every camp of the organization. Another plan, which had a number of supporters, is to levy an assessment on each camp.

Thomas E. Powe, of St. Louis, senior member in attendance, is presiding at the meeting. W. G. Pritchard, of Charleston, S. C., commander in chief, found it impossible to attend, but telegraphed his regrets to N. B. Forrest, adjutant general in charge of arrangements. Commander Pritchard pledged his hearty co-operation in any course which might be mapped out at the meeting.

Among those in attendance is Seton Fleming, Jacksonville, Fla., former commander of the Florida division.

THE COLD WAVE

Was Reported Last Night as Sweeping East—In Missouri

Washington, D. C., Nov. 28.—A blizzard with snow and high winds was raging today over a large portion of the country, extending from Minnesota to Northern Texas. Zero temperatures have been recorded in the more Northerly States and freezing weather was reported from points as far South as Northern Louisiana. The cold wave is sweeping eastward rapidly. Snow is predicted tonight for Kentucky, Tennessee and Western North Carolina with a decided drop in temperature in Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina and Florida.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 28.—With large parts of Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Northern Texas covered with snow from two to five inches in depth the torm which yesterdy swept over the Missouri valley and the Southwest abated this morning. The wind which last night became almost a blizzard had died down. Wire service in the Southwest was demoralized. Stock raisers suffered the greatest damage in farming communities. Temperatures ranged fro 10 to 12 degrees in Nebraska 16 to 26 in Missouri and 16 to 24 in Oklahoma. It was 24 at Abeline, Texas.

EX-SULTAN'S JEWELS

Abdul Hamid's Wonderful Collection Being Sold In Paris

Paris, Nov. 28.—What is announced to be the largest sale of jewels on record opened here yesterday afternoon, when the literally priceless collection of Abdul Hamid, ex-Sultan of Turkey, came under the hammer. Although only a small fraction of the treasures displayed was disposed of the receipts reported a total of 2,700,000 francs ($540,000.)

The best price paid was for a necklace composed of three rows of 154 pearls and a clasp formed of three rows of brilliants which brought 920,000 francs ($184,000). A string of 99 pearls with pendant composed of the imperial cypher in gold, three large rubies brought $124,000.

Among other objects two gold coffee cups and saucers encrusted with diamonds brought $5,040; a gold alarm clock set with diamonds $7,120; a walking stick, with gold and diamond head $1,000.

The sale which was attended by all the notable jewelers of Europe, will continue a fortnight.

FOUR OF HER CREW KILLED.

Three Others Hurt by Tremendous Sea That Strikes Steamer.

New York, Nov. 28.—A tremendous sea which swept the decks of the Fabre Line steamship Santa Anna, caused the death of four seamen and the serious injury of three others.

News of the disaster was brought to port when the liner arrived today from Marseilles and Naples.

The ship's passage, as a whole, was stormy and unpleasant, but it was not until November 23rd, that the heaviest sea was encountered.

ROCKY MOUNT NEWS.

Boy Seriously Injured—Negress Burned—Other Items of Interest.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Nov. 28.—This morning about 11 o'clock the seven-year-old son of Mr. J. B. Overton, who lives several miles from the city, was run over by a two-horse wagon loaded with hay, and sustained very painful, but not serious injuries. Medical assistance was given the little fellow at once, and it is expected that he will recover within a few days. The youngster was riding on top of the wagon when he slipped, falling on the rear end of the front wheel to the ground, and the back wheel passed over his chest and arms.

This morning about 9:30, Mary Dew, a negress about 14 years of age, while attending to her mother's wash pot in their yard in some manner caught her dress on fire, and was severely, if not seriously burned from her ankles up to her shoulder on the rightkt side. She received medical attention as soon as possible, and the chances for recovery are very slim. She had presence of mind enough to roll over on the ground and succeeded in putting the blaze out before it caught on the other side, which probably saved her life.

Last night Sydney Austin, a negro, more or less under the influence of whiskey, while sitting serenely in an up-stairs window of a building here, toppled over, landing on his head and right arm on the stone pavement below. That he was not killed instantly seems to be owing to the fact that he was totally drunk. As it was, he seemed to have presence of mind enough to throw out his right hand as he was falling and landed partly on this member, with the result that it was totally shattered, and with this, in addition to a badly bruised head, he is none the worse from his fall, which ordinarily would have killed any man.

A case which has attracted considerable attention in and around Rocky Mount is that of Mr. Horne, a young man from South Rocky Mount, who is charged by the city with opening, setting on foot and conducting a lottery, the article put up to be won being a cow.

The young man's case came up in Recorder's court this morning, but was postponed until an extra session at night. The method of Mr. Horne was that of placing numbers in envelopes, from one to 80, using also, half numbers, thereby running from 1, 1 1-2, etc., on up to 80. The raffle was pulled off, the cow being won by Mr. Tracy Moore, of South Rocky Mount. One of the policemen getting on the game reported it, and a warrant was sworn out for Mr. Horne.

SETH LOW'S PLAN.

Regulation Rather Than Repression of Trusts Suggested.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Regulation rather than repression of trusts was urged upon the Interstate Commerce Committee of the Senate today by Seth Low, president of the National Civic Federation.

"The tendency of trade combinations is universal," Mr. Low declared, "and the government is attempting the impossible if it tries to prevent them."

Mr. Low declared he thought many trade agreements, limiting output, are in the public interest and should be regulated rather than prohibited.

Mr. Low said he thought publicity a good thing, "In many institutions," he said, "the big safes are guarded not by a watchman, but by an electric light. I think that should be an object lesson to the American government."

Of 1,006 merchants and banks polled by Mr. Low as to what additional anti-trust legislation was necessary 209 favored legalized farmers' combinations for holding corps or restricting output and 828 opposed the measure.

BLOODY CHAPTER RECALLED.

Death of Daughter of Andrews Alsman Who Caused Massacre.

Palmyra, Mo., Nov. 28.—A bloody chapter in Civil War history—the Palmyra massacre—was recalled here today by the death of Mrs. Sarah Lee, a daughter of Andrew Alsman. It was Alsman's abduction—supposedly by Confederate soldiers—that resulted in the shooting of 10 Southern fighters after a demand for Alsman's return had been ignored. Mrs. Lee was 80 years old.

Alsman was supposed to have been an ardent abolitionist. One morning he disappeared. Search for him led to suspicion that he had been abducted by Confederate authorities. A demand was made upon them for Alsman's return and the Union officials backed up their demand with the threat that if Alsman were not produced within the prescribed time limit, 10 Southern soldiers would be shot.

Alsman was not returned. True to their word the Union army officials led out 10 Confederate soldiers, placed them on pine coffins, then the firing squad shot. Alsman was never found.

BANQUET AND DANCE.

Sons and Daughters of the "Old Dominion" at New York.

New York, November 28.—Two hundred sons and daughters of Virginia, descendant of the "Old Dominion" stock, renewed home ties tonight at a banquet and dance held at one of the large hotels. The debt that Virginia owed to New York and New York to Virginia was the theme which ran through most of the speeches.

Among those who made addresses were Bishop Arthur S. Lloyd, Judge Charles Forest Moore, William Alexander, Governor of "The Virginians," and George Gordon Battle, its vice-president. Letters of regret were read from Woodrow Wilson, governor of New Jersey, and from the governors of Virginia and Kentucky.

FAMILY OF SIX MURDERED.

Man, Wife and Children Killed While They Sleep.

Lafayette, La., Nov. 28.—Slain in their beds with an axe, the bodies of six negroes, Norbert Randall and his wife and four children were found in their home yesterday.

Officers working on the case arrested Clementine Bernabet, a young negress, who, when confronted with her own clothing soaked with blood, laughed at the officers who charged her with butchering the Randall family.

Her brother, Zephering Barnabet, was also held, together with two others as material witnesses. The crime was committed on Saturday night.

TO EXPLOIT NORTHWEST.

Governors of Several States Reach Chicago—Their Mission.

Chicago, November 28.—Chicago today housed the governors of a chain of States extending from Illinois to the Pacific coast with the arrival from Minneapolis of the "Governors' Special" on the first leg of its 4,000-mile trip undertaken to exploit in Eastern cities the agricultural, commercial and mining advantages of the Northwest.

"Before we end our trip many a jobless man, now shivering in the streets of New York, Philadelphia or Washington, will be listening to the call of the West, and many an Eastern merchant will be on more intimate terms with the great country northwest of the Mississippi," said one governor, in explaining the purpose of the mission. Five carloads of the products of the various States are to be displayed in the Eastern cities.

Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Wyoming, Colorado, North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota and Illinois were represented by governors or other State officials.

ON TO PANAMA.

Bankers Voyaging Caribbean Get News From Savannah.

Bankers' Fleet, Gulf of Mexico (by wireless to New Orleans), Nov. 28.—Delightful weather and smooth seas have been experienced by the fleet of four steamers which are conveying the American Bankers' Association party to Panama. Late yesterday the passengers enjoyed a spirited race between three steamers of the fleet, the Carillo, Sixaola and Tives. The Carillo, Capt. H. P. Smith, won.

On board each of the ships a daily newspaper of four pages is published, in which wireless dispatches are printed. Yesterday an "extra" was issued, carrying the results of the Savannah automobile races. The excitement aboard the ships was intense Saturday, as the bulletins on the Harvard-Yale and Aarmy-Navy football games were being received and posted.

A wireless invitation has been received, inviting the members of the part to attend a reception tendered by President Arosemena at the palace in Panama City on the afternoon of December 1st.

WHITE MAN HUNG.

Pays the Penalty for Murder of Two Negroes.

St. Mary's, Ga., Nov. 28.—J. A. O'Berry, who killed two negro women 12 miles from here several months ago and who was convicted last month of the murder, was hanged here yesterday.

No one witnessed the execution but the sheriff and a few guards. Very few people came in from the surrounding country, and there was no evidence at all that anything out of the usual was happening.

O'Berry walked upon the gallows and placed himself in position, showing no fear at all, merely asking that everything be fixed so there would be no slip.

Eighteen minutes after the trap was sprung he was pronounced dead by Dr. A. K. Swift.

This was the first time in this State that a white man has paid the death penalty for killing a negro. O'Berry had confessed to the crime and the State prison board declined to act on his case.

MORE TRUST BUSTING.

Attorney General Wants Power of Bureau Enlarged.

Washington, November 28.—The "trust busting" crusade of the Federal government has demonstrated in the judgment of Attorney General Wickersham that the powers of the bureau of corporations should be enlarged, and the bureau brought into closer relations with the Department of Justice. The Attorney General will recommend, in his annual report, that the bureau be given legal authority to acquire facts regarding the operations of all corporate businesses.

The Attorney General has become a competitor of Postmaster General Hitchcock as a government economist. He will show in his annual report that the Department of Justice was run at a big profit during the fiscal year 1911, despite the large amount of trust litigation. From fines, lumber trespasses, the recovery of customs duties, etc., the legal department turned $4,000,000 into the Federal treasury.

ESCAPED FROM SHERIFF.

Was to be Hanged for Murder Today in Georgia.

Washington, Ga., November 28.—Handcuffed and tied with a rope, T. B. Walker, a negro, who was being brought here from Augusta to be hanged tomorrow morning, escaped from Sheriff Bobo and two deputies at Barnett, Ga., tonight. Bloodhounds were rushed to Barnett and a special train carrying a hundred armed men went from here. Shots were fired at the negro, but he outdistanced the pursuing officers. This is Walker's second escape from impending death. A month ago he was in the hands of a mob, on the way to a suitable lynching place, but escaped, a hundred bullets failing to bring him to earth. He had shot and killed Charles S. Hollenshead, a white merchant, while the latter was sitting in his home at night.

DEATH IN WAYNE.

Mrs. Lloyd Parker Passes Away—Daughter of Late William Howell.

Goldsboro, N. C., Nov. 28.—News was received this afternoon announcing the death at her country home near this city of Mrs. Lloyd Parker, 21 years old, who passed away last night. She was the daughter of the late Wm. Howell, better known as "War Bill" Howell. The funeral was held this afternoon at Woodland, this county.

GREENSBORO LAWYER DEAD.

Said to Have Been Oldest in State—Considerable Wealth.

Greensboro, N. C., November 28.—Levi M. Scott, aged 84, said to have been the oldest lawyer in active practice in North Carolina, died here tonight from the effects of a fall last Saturday. He had been unconscious since that time. Mr. Scott was a member of the bar here for sixty years and was one of the wealthiest and most influential men in the county.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 28.—Dr. John P. Davidson, widely known in the South as a medical and surgical specialist, died here today of heart failure.

INVESTIGATION TODAY

Will Be Started Into Details of Woman's Death

Kissimmee, Fla., Nov. 28.—Investigation of the dath last August of Sister Sadie Marchant, of the Shaker Colony at St. Cloud, will be started tomorrow by the grand jury which met today.

Brother Egbert Gillette is in jail on a charge of murder, growing out of the statement that he gave the dead woman chloroform to ease her from her suffering and to bring death more quickly. Gillette has refused all offers of assistance to secure his freedom, saying he wants the law to take its course.
